

New Grace Chapel officially opened and dedicated Sunday

Two large crowds filled Grace Chapel to overflowing Sunday as the church marked the official opening of the new premises. The services marked completion of plans formulated following the fire that destroyed the previous church building on Front Street in March of 1970.

Music and thanks were the key notes of the service, with the former provided ably by the "Truth For the Times Trio" from Peterborough, which sang twice with piano and guitar accompaniment. Fred Elliott of Belleville, a former member of this church also sang a solo.

Highlight of the service was the history presented by Ernest Belch of Belleville, on behalf of his father, who was too ill to attend. The brief sketch outlined formation of the congregation in 1935, with services held in the old mill until a church was built in 1938. That one was started with a $35 building fund. The present edifice would easily cost 1,000 times that much, had all materials and labor been purchased at present rates.

Mr. Belch also recalled how Stirling was a rallying point for conferences in years gone by, with 1,200 meals served in two days.

Following the fire on March 4, there was a prayer meeting two days later over Ray Tyrer's Shop. At this meeting, it was decided to plan to rebuild. The members were overwhelmed by the offers from other churches for facilities, but ended up using the Stirling Public School until the present building was ready for use in early 1971.

The building committee, headed by Leon Wilson of Foxboro, who conducted the service, was composed of George Sutherland, chairman, Donald Vardy, Mike Malloy, A. Wannamaker, Paul Tyrer, and Rod Moorcroft.

Also reading during the service, was a partial list of those firms and individuals that either supplied labor and materials or right or at substantially reduced cost to the church. Tribute was paid to Everett Sine, who owned the land, and sold it to the church, after refusing offers from others for holding it.

Special speakers for the day were Aubrey Dellandrea, from North Bay and Robert McLaren from Guelph, who brought the messages at the afternoon and evening services respectively.

Following this, the congregation was invited to tour the building and enjoy refreshments in the basements.

Senior Citizens Club News

Not having a place in the games played last Wednesday at Senior Citizens, Dorothy Summers and disole Sen played cribbage. Observation—girls can play cribbage too, nut-seed.

Over 40 present enjoyed the lunch provided by Ross Hoard, Mabel Brooks, Mary Cooke, Myrtle Tanner, Ross doesn't have trouble getting female helpers.

The Club will be holding their Christmas dinner in the Anglican hall on December 19th at 6:00 pm, with St. John ladies catering. We will then adjourn to our hall for entertainment.

And then there was the man who was so scared by reading endless stories linking smoking with cancer that he finally decided to quit reading the newspaper.

Our next meeting will be Thursday, Nov. 4th and will be progressive euchre again. There will be good prizes and a lot of hard luck for most of us, Quakers.

FOUR BAILEY BROTHERS -- MASONS ALL

The official visit of William K. Bailey (second from right), Grand Master of the Masonic Lodge of Ontario to Stirling last Thursday was an occasion for a reunion of four Bailey brothers, all of whom hold high offices in the order. From left, they are Ross, Belleville, district secretary of Prince Edward District; Clarence, Smiths Falls, district deputy grand master of St. Lawrence District; William K. Bailey; and Gordon, R.R. 5, Stirling, grand sword bearer.

Stirling Masons celebrate as Grand Master comes 'home'

"Needless to say, this is a very proud moment in my life," said William K. Bailey, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Ontario, in the Province of Ontario, when he stood to address some 200 Stirling and district Masons here Thursday evening.

Mr. Bailey, a native of Rawdon township now living in Toronto, is the first Masonic Grand Master to pay an official visit to Stirling Lodge No. 69, AF and AM, the lodge he joined in his youth in 1925.

"This (reception and dinner) has brought together a great many of my former friends... friends of yesterday," he told the gathering, in the IOOF Hall.

The main theme of Mr. Bailey's address centered around the question, "What is there (in the Masonic order) for me?"

Speaking personally, the Grand Master said the reply included many wonderful evenings of fellowship, and a great many favors and honors.

Membership in the order means many privileges, associations and fellowships that one otherwise would not have, said Mr. Bailey. Through allegory and symbols, the lodge has a unique contribution to make to its membership, he said.

Membership also means a good deal of hard work and nights away from home, said the speaker. But the desire to help others and the peculiar companionship which comes from participation makes Masonry appealing.

Mr. Bailey's remarks included a short description of some of the historical highlights of the Lodge in Stirling. Noting that Stirling Lodge No. 69 dated back for some 120 years, he commented that No. 69 was one of 65 lodges which chose not to join in when the Grand Lodge of Canada came into being in 1855.

(The local lodge received its warrant from the Grand Lodge of England).

In 1958, however, Stirling lodge sought permission to affiliate with the Canadian lodge.

Mr. Bailey's speech came in reply to a toast to the Grand Master and the Grand Lodge, proposed by George Noble.

Following this, a sister of the Grand Master, Miss Cora Bailey of Peterborough, presented him with a large, framed portrait of himself, from the Bailey family.

In turn, Mr. Bailey handed the portrait over to Ralph Clements, worshipful master of Stirling Lodge, who said the portrait would be placed in a prominent place in the local Masonic Temple.

A presentation from the lodge itself was made by James Pollock.

Robert C. Hoard extended a welcome to all guests present. Replying was Ronald Poste of Trenton.

The Junior Warden's toast was proposed by Allan Foote.

Stirling Rebekahs catered to the roast beef dinner.

After five weeks play Caprice and Ranchero have established their superiority with 27 and 23 points respectively.

The Beauty Queens have 11, and the Young Latins, despite having the highest team handi-cap, claim only 9 points.

Last week Albert Wilhelm and Roy Lake shared the men's individual honors. Albert rolled the high single of 253, while Roy completed a triple of 666.

Debbie Turritt rolled the high among the women - a single of 250 and a triple of 566.

Even this early in the season some good scores are being turned in. To date Roy Lake has completed an average of 197 to lead the league. Les Gozzard has 188, Albert Wilhelm, 186, Ed Svoboda, 181 and Mike Kerr and Keith Lake are tied at 178.

Ruth Benoit leads the women with an average of 186. Following are Debbie Turritt with 175, Emma Roe, 169, Katie Wilhelm, 161, and Judy Lake at 157.

Last week the first and second place teams clashed, while the third and fourth place teams met head on. But in the end nothing was settled. Ranchero took only 3 of 7 against Caprice, while Beauty Queens bravely edged Young Latins by a count of 4-3. Thus the standings now are:

Caprice 31 points
Rancheros 26 points
Beauty Queens 15 points
Young Latins 12 points

Bill Reid set a new season's high single of 319, and also scored a 235 for a triple of 701. However, this was not enough to match Ken McCaughen who turned in scores of 296 and 252 en route to a season high triple of 720.

Other men's scores recorded included a 251 by Albert Wilhelm, 230 by Roy Lake, 227 by Elvin Turritt and 225 by Ken Danford.

Lois Lake bowled a women's high triple of 233. However, Emma Roe rolled a 219 and 208 to complete the high triple of 606.

These scores are all the more remarkable for, as previously noted, no one team emerged as clear victor for the night.

John W. Holmes 86 years old

John W. Holmes of R.R. 3, Stirling entertained 22 members of his family on Oct. 23 in celebration of his 86th birthday.

Mr. Holmes was born on Oct. 23, 1885 in the Queensborough area, to the late William and Eliza Holmes.

He retired from the Canadian National Railways in 1950 after 40 years of service, 34 of which were as foreman of the section at Anson Station.

His wife, the former Mae Broad died in 1964 after 52 years of marriage. They had three sons, Kenneth Holmes who lives in Madoc, and the late Clifford Holmes of Kingston and Douglas who died in childhood.

Mr. Holmes is a member of the Mount Pleasant United Church of Canada and the Senior Citizens of Stirling. He still remains very active working on his small farm at Anson Station which claims one of the largest red raspberry patches in the area. He also enjoys the bus trips taken by the Senior Citizens of Stirling.

His guests were served a delicious turkey dinner by the women of the Mount Pleasant Church. A family sing song was enjoyed by all during the afternoon.

After blowing out the candles on his birthday cake, Mr. Holmes thanked all who came and for the many gifts he received.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Holmes of Madoc, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Martin, Kellianne, Shawn and Thomas Martin; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stephens of Kingston, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Armstrong of Tottenham, Miss Anne Holmes of Stirling, Mr. and Mrs. James Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holmes of Toronto, Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald of Carrying Place, Mrs. William Dusher and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Fitzgerald of Niagara Falls, New York and Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips of Rochester, New York.

Mr. Holmes received many cards from his many friends and relatives, among them was a card from Spec. 4 - W. Douglas Fitzgerald, who is stationed with the United States Army in Korea, extending his best wishes and his regrets that he could not be present.

Hallowe'en pranks few

Hallowe'en passed with its usual pranks. Saturday night saw the youngsters out in mass, disguised as goblins, witches and other weird creatures.

Goodies were collected in large amounts and the tricksters had their soap bars with them, for liberal use, particularly in the downtown area.

Although no serious damage was reported, a considerable amount of egg throwing took place in downtown Stirling Saturday night, prompting local motorists and pedestrians to wonder who supplied all the ammunition. It is to be hoped this was no commercial venture.

Personal

Mr. and Mrs. A.R. Wannamaker returned home after visiting the Western Provinces. Their trip took them to Vancouver, New Westminster, Seattle, Middle Lake, Sask., Kindersley and Olds, Alta., where they visited their granddaughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Warren were weekend guests of their daughter, Mrs. Eric McIntosh and Mr. McIntosh, last week. On Sunday they attended the christening of their "grandson", Brian Jeffrey, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Pyear of Guelph. Fifteen babies were christened at this service in Dublin Street United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Doug McIntosh, Burlington; Mr. and Mrs. Don McIntosh, Stirling; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones and Sharon of Belleville were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh of Stirling.

Ladies Fellowship held at Mount Pleasant

(By Mrs. Percy MacMullen)
On Monday evening, October 25, Mount Pleasant U.C.W. was hostess to the annual autumn Ladies Fellowship service and all the churches in the area were represented.

The hall was decorated with fall flowers and ferns and a Halloween arrangement was placed over the piano.

The president, Mrs. Garth Joslin, opened with a special message, Mrs. Roy Taylor of St.

Andrews Presbyterian Church was pianist and during the devotional, Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh sang.

Approximately 90 ladies were in attendance from the eight churches.

The opening hymn was "Happy the Home" and Mrs. Joslin welcomed everyone.

Mrs. Allan Wells of St. Paul's United Church, was in charge of the scenic pictures and the Devotional was on the theme, The Wonders of Our Father's World, with Mrs. E. W. Bogart giving the commentary. All sang, "This is my Father's World."

The offering was gathered by Mrs. J. Doran and Miss Alice O'Donnell of St. James and de Grace Chapel.

Mrs. S. McArthur of St. John's introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Bogstad of Kingston. She is an officer of the Diocese and has the Family Life Department. She gave a very interesting message on this subject of work, after which, Mrs. Blake Faulkner showed a film entitled, "Jamie", which had been prepared by the National Film Board.

At the close of the message the following group leaders led in the discussion of the theme. They were Mrs. Jack Bush, St. Paul's United Church; Mrs. Edward MacDonald, Good Tidings Pentecostal Church; Mrs. Gerald Russell, Bethel United Church; Mrs. Grace McKeown, Spring Brook United Church; Mrs. Doris Wells, St. Paul's United Church; and Mrs. G. Sutherland, Grace Chapel.

Several pictures were displayed, such as, "You and Your Pre-Schooler" and "You and Your Growing Child", etc.

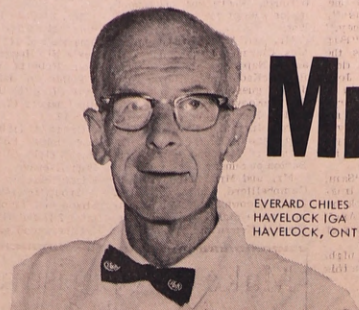

The offering will be given to Stirling Public Library to purchase books.

The president voiced appreciation to all the churches for their assistance and the meeting closed with prayer.

The committee in charge, under the leadership of Mrs. Bur-ton Sharpe served light refreshments after which Mrs. Jack Bush tendered a vote of thanks on behalf of all the guests for the hospitality.

Canada was the first country in the world to set up free mailing privileges for the blind.

Stirling Bantam, Junior Bowling

Saturday, Oct. 30 the Champions (10) downed the Partridge Family (13) 3 to 0 winning the second game by 3 more 3 points. The Go Getters (19) and the Great Ones (19) each won a game, but the Go Getters got the odd point for total pinfall. The Chargers (22) defeated the Hot Shots (17) 5 to 0.

BANTAM - Sherry Farrell bowled the girl's high single of 141 and high double of 270. Kim Philp has high average of 139. For the boys Robby Clements had games of 202 and 157 for high single, high double 259 and high average of 177.

Other good games were Sandra Edgar 120 and 114, Suzanne Jackot 114 and 107, David Montgomery 142 and 107, Margaret Wilcox 119 and 119, Paul Sees 121, Tammy Palmer 126 and 109, Sherry Farrell 120, Kim Philp 119, Douglas Royce 104 and Heather Glendinning 107.

This year the Youth Bowling Council program has lowered the single crest award to 75 for those bowlers 9 years and under and also has made a new crest which is a colorful Jet Crest awarded to this age group if they bowl a strike for their team and belong to the Y.B.C. Three of these new Jet Crests were won by Stephen Valchur, Brian Clements and Geoffrey Wilcox. Those of this group who bowled 75 or better this week were Brian Clements with a great game of 164 and 91, Jeff Whiteman 95 and 93, Scott Whiteman 96 and 91, Danny Benson 108, Geoffrey Wilcox 80, Cheryl McGee 101 and 96, Peter Jones 84 and 78 and Robbie Edgar 75.

JUNIOR - Jo Anne Valchur had two identical games of 146 for girls' high single, high double 292 and high average 152. Ricky Clements bowled games of 204 and 168 for boys' high single, high double 372 and high average 174.

Other good games were Steve Benson's 181 and 138, Terry McGee 168 and Dale Kleinstuber 145.

Among the Books At Stirling Public Library

Now that Standard Time is in force the Stirling Public Library again will be showing their free films each Friday night, beginning at 7:30 p.m. We hope to be able to show new films and some old favourites too. All boys and girls are welcome, and for small children, we will be having Story Hour at 2:00 p.m. on Saturdays.

Some new books have been arriving and are now on our shelves, and we hope we have something to please every taste. Fiction titles include "The White Rose" by Ian Westcott, a historical novel set in England at the time of the War of the Roses; "The Minister" by Charles Mer- cery; "The Doctor's Two Lives" by Elizabeth Selfer; and "Crooked Adam" by D. E. Stevenson - a reissue of a popular writer's book set in wartime England and Scotland.

Guess who's doing the dishes? The wifesavers

For years, doing the dishes has been one of life's necessary evils.

But now, because of automatic electric dishwashers, more and more people are finding out it's an unnecessary evil.

Consider some of the things an automatic electric dishwasher can save wives from. Things like: the dreary routine of washing and drying pots and dishes day after day; the worry of dishpan hands, the after-party aftermath; and the hours spent doing dishes that could be spent in a hundred happier ways.

Consider this, too. A lot of dirty dishes come with the joys of Christmas. So what could make a more timely gift than an automatic electric dishwasher?

See your appliance dealer soon about the new automatic electric dishwashers. They're not called The Wifesavers for nothing, you know.

Thoughts on driving along the 401

BY LYNN JONES

Ever wonder about those mysterious cars on the 401 that seem to be abandoned without obvious cause, or any attempt to remove them to safety or repair?

Just travel any portion of this four-lane road, and you will doubtless see several cars parked along the road. Why are they there? Did the vehicle give up? Did the gas tank go dry? Did the driver take sick?

These and many other questions come to mind if one lets his imagination wander. Most of these cars do not have flat tires. There seems little chance the drivers would have wandered off into the nearby fields, as they offer no obvious attraction. What intrigues me most is the cars one sees at night. Are there desperate criminals hunched in the back seat waiting for some unsuspecting Samaritan to offer assistance? Is the car abandoned there because the driver was fleeing and thought his vehicle might be "hot"?

We hardly expect anything so dramatic from these situations, but when you read about some of the queer happenings, and see shows based on what are supposedly authentic cases, it makes a fellow wonder. As you speed along at 70 miles an hour (perhaps you go even more) you are usually past these situations too quickly to really react, even if you wanted to investigate. On the other hand, if the car is apparently deserted, there isn't much one could do anyway.

If you really want to do something different, try and while away the miles with a game of some type. Some like to try playing cribbage with the licence number they see; others count the transports met or passed. If you are desperate, perhaps you could even sing to yourself.

Travelling what could be termed "the big road" is a quick, efficient way for traffic to move between cities and towns. It calls for concentration at times, but if you want to make the trip more enjoyable, think about those abandoned cars and their possible situations; keep your mind active with some simple little pastime and it will surprise you how quickly the miles and minutes melt into a pleasant trip.

A Weekly Meditation

THREE GREAT DISCOVERIES
BY Rev. John A. May,
St. Paul's United Church, Stirling

Text: Isa. 6: 1-8

This passage is an account of divine-human encounter. It is described by a perceptive and intuitive mind.

The background of the passage is this: Isaiah was in the temple when he made three great discoveries.

1. First of all he discovered something about the greatness of God, Isa. 6:3. He was almost overwhelmed with the majesty and dominion and power of God. That is a discovered many need to make. Our idea of God is too small, too puny, too remote.

2. Isaiah's second discovery was something about himself and his nation: they weren't as good as they thought they were. However prosperous times had been, however great their king had been, however religious he himself was, however well they had observed conventional standards of morality, in the actual presence of the purity and splendor of God, when face to face with holiness exalted in righteousness.

ness, it was clear to Isaiah that he and his people were unclean, Isa. 6:5.

3. The third thing Isaiah discovered was something about the need of the world for what he could do, Isa. 6:8, 9a.

God's world needs the faithful service of each of us.

Isaiah made at least three great discoveries; something about the greatness of God; something about himself and his people; something about the need of the world for what he could do.

Volunteer services workshop

On Oct. 27 a Volunteer Services Workshop was held at St. Paul's United Church, Stirling, from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., with a half hour break for lunch. Twenty-eight ladies were present.

Mrs. C. Kennedy and Mrs. H. Parsons of The Ontario Division Canadian Red Cross Society, conducted the workshop.

A film entitled, The Rights of Age, was shown by Peggy Faulkner, followed by lively discussion on tangible and intangible needs of Senior Citizens. Each case is individual, and many require assistance in making wise decisions re housing, medical care, etc.

Stress was placed upon "friendly visiting, and the many ways in which the elderly in our community can be encouraged to keep active and alert and remain a part of the world around them.

The afternoon session opened with a film on First Aid. It stressed the need of every individual having basic knowledge of the principles of First Aid. Mouth to mouth resuscitation was explained in detail.

Special disabilities and services a volunteer can give re gift giving was fully discussed. Emphasis was placed on "Fun and Fitness" when Mrs. Kennedy demonstrated simple exercises using an ordinary hand towel. These were suitable for patients in nursing homes and done to the rhythm of simple tunes.

The afternoon was brought to a close with discussion of the goals of a Friendly Visiting Service, and each person attending obtained a "Friendly Visiting" Handbook.

Do You Remember? 25 Years Ago

The Heasman brothers, Ed and Harry, who resides out on Stirling R. 4, in the Oak Lake district, certainly don't grow all the potatoes in this district but they do grow some of the largest ones judging from a couple of samples on display at this office this week. The larger "spud" on display weighs just one ounce short of 3 lbs., while the other tips the scales at 2 lbs.

It is also interesting to note that from five bags of seed planted in the spring, the Heasman boys garnered 120 bags of good quality "spuds", which is some crop.

A number of real estate deals have been completed in the village during the past week.

Frank Stapley purchased the property on Emma Street belonging to Mr. Bert Conley and his sister, Mrs. Earl Adam, of Leveak, Ont., while Mr. J. Sleeper of Batawa, has purchased Ed Gorman's property belonging to Mrs.

N. E. Eggleton on Front St., now occupied by Mrs. A. E. Armstrong.

Congratulations are extended Mrs. Hiram Rosebush who observed her 80th birthday at her home, at River Valley, on Tuesday, October 29th. Despite her years, Mrs. Rosebush enjoys comparatively good health and assists in performing the household duties. Her many friends join in wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Slipping and falling in her home at West Huntingdon, on Monday, Mrs. James Haggerty suffered a fracture of her left arm. She was taken to the Belleville hospital where the fracture was reduced on Tuesday.

Miss Marjorie Gay has accepted a position in the Stirling News-Argus and begin her duties on Monday last.

75 Years Ago

Three tramps were locked up in the cell at the town hall on Monday night last. They were released on Tuesday morning.

On account of ill health I will close my Cider Mill on the Thirtieth of November. No jobs done after that date.

T. H. Bradley
We learned that Mr. Isaac Denike, of Rawdon, has purchased a farm near Campbellford, and will remove there shortly. He has rented his farm in Rawdon to Mr. Frank Maybee.

We are pleased to learn that on appeal to the Department of Education, Miss Hattie Martin has secured a second class certificate, thus adding one more to the large list of successful students of the Stirling High School at the late examinations.

We notice that the contemplated improvements in connection with the Kerby House, Stirling, Michael Kerby, proprietor, have been made, and the public will now find on the premises as good and extensive stables and as good accommodation as can be found in the county.

The busiest industry in Stirling is probably the Crown Roller Mill. A few days since Messrs. Boldrick & Son received an order for forty tons of flour from a firm in Quebec; and this, with a constant stream of customers from the surrounding country, has made it necessary to work over time, and sometimes to run all night. The Roller Mill is undoubtedly proving a benefit to the village, as well as profitable to its proprietors.

A barn belonging to Mr. Peck, in the 2nd Con. of Thurlow, was destroyed by fire on Sunday night, together with all the season's crops and a threshing machine. The fire is supposed to be the work of tramps.

That Candidates Night -- So-called

Now that the election is past, may we be permitted to comment on that so-called All Candidates night held in Stirling during the week prior to voting day.

A Meet the Candidates Night was suggested by the News-Argus as a means of putting some spark into a dull campaign locally. Had the meeting been properly organized and advertised, we still think it would have provided a much-needed service to the electorate.

As it turned out, however, the meeting was arranged at the last minute, apparently with no thought being given to the candidates' itineraries which obviously had to be planned well in advance.

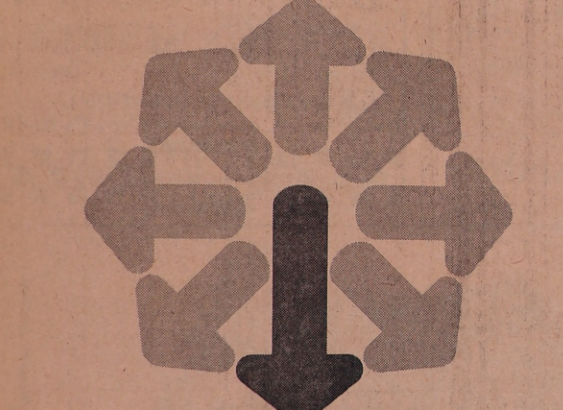

The result was that the Progressive Conservative candidate, Clarke Rollins, had already been committed to attend another meeting on the night of the Stirling rally. And he wasn't about to change his plans.

At that point, the organizers would have been wise either to suggest another time or cancel the attempt. At the very least, the meeting should not have been advertised as an All Candidates Night, since the planners were fully aware that one of the three candidates would be absent.

By going ahead with the rally, the organizers gave the impression of being more interested in embarrassing Mr. Rollins than in presenting a forum for public discussion.

We hope that the experience gained with this attempt last month will be drawn on when the next federal election campaign takes place. We think the idea of an all-candidates rally is excellent, but one which requires a considerable amount of planning to ensure that each party representative is given a fair chance.

RECENTLY MARRIED

Mr. and Mrs. Barrie Evans at their wedding reception on October 9 at Pine Lodge Inn, R.R. 1, Kingston, following their marriage in Sydenham.

Street United Church in Kingston. Mrs. Evans is the former Marion Camm of Stirling, daughter of Wendell Camm of Church Street.

Bethel UCW

'October is a big month for Thanksgiving' was the reading given at the opening of the UCW meeting in Bethel Hall on Oct. 28. The roll call, a verse including the word 'Harvest' was answered by 24 members and visitors, also two children present. Mrs. E. Broadworth was in charge of the Worship Service, opening with the hymn, 'We plough the fields and scatter' followed by prayer. The scripture, taken from 2nd Corinthians: verse 8, was read by Mrs. Holden. Mrs. E. Sine gave the meditation on the theme - 'We should all become Jesus' people - Go ye therefore and teach all people. Take my life and let it be sung. A reading, 'Forgetfulness by Mrs. S. Kellar and a prayer by Mrs. O. Jackson closed the worship service. Mrs. H. Elliott was pianist.

During the business session birthday money was paid, several visits to the sick were reported, plans for catering were made and money donated instead of catering at Hoards Sale in December, Mrs.

T. Clements, acting secretary read the minutes and correspondence. There is to be a Stewardship workshop on Nov. 8 in Holyway St. United Church, Belleville. It was announced that the canvassers had collected $125.00 for CNIB. Mrs. Carlisle gave a report of the Fall Rally held in Tweed.

Beatitudes for a housewife was a reading by Mrs. W. Heath. Mrs. J. Pollock called upon Mrs. C. Clancy to tell of a three week bus trip through Mexico that she took last year. The history of Mexico dates back to the Aztec Indians of many centuries ago. They were accomplished in the art of weaving and making pottery and were able to read and write by their own signs. The Spanish and then the French exploited the country but with very little development until the early 1900's. Now there are modern schools, modern hospitals, modern houses and not far away possibly primitive slums. The rich are really rich and the poor which includes about two thirds of the population, are very poor. There is no class of people in between. They are a proud people of many different races and speaking many different dialects. The Mexican people have no love for the American people but welcome Canadians. There was an interesting display of souvenirs and pictures.

Mrs. J. Carlisle thanked Mrs. Clancy and presented her with a small gift. The collection was received and dedicated and the meeting closed with the hymn 'The Day Thou Gavest, Lord, is ended, and the Benediction.

(By Mrs. Arthur Pyear)
Mrs. Thomas Grills was hostess at her home for the October meeting of the UCW unit when 20 members, two visitors and five children were present. Mrs. Jack Fraser and Mrs. Ray Keating had prepared the program. Mrs. Fraser opened with a hymn, prayer, and read the Scripture lesson from Colossians chapter three.

Mrs. Keating read the topic on 'Better Impulses' and they then gave a dialogue on the subject followed by a lively discussion. The roll call was answered by the number of hospital and home calls.

Mrs. Retta Grills gave a reading 'Thanksgiving' and Mrs. Keating conducted the business and closed the meeting. The lunch committee, Mrs. Brian Sayers, Mrs. Arthur Buss, and the hostess served lunch, and Mrs. Charles Smith expressed appreciation to all who had a part. Mrs. Charles Bailey underwent surgery in Belleville General Hospital and is progressing favorably.

The Fraser Store at Glen Ross has closed for the winter months. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Mitts, Belleville, were Friday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pyear.

Mr. and Mrs. George Platford are proud parents of a son born on October 20 at Belleville General Hospital.

Stirling students honored at Centennial graduation

By THOM REYNOLDS
Grade 12 and 13 students of Centennial Secondary School celebrated a personal achievement on Saturday night when they received their Secondary School Graduation Diplomas and their Secondary School Honor Graduation Diplomas.

Twenty-one Grade 13 students from Stirling received their Honor Diplomas. They included Gail Armstrong, Elizabeth Bastedo, Jane Bush, Richard Camm, Janice Edwards, Linda Faulkner, James Followell, Gordon Hord, Gayle Hoover, Kathryn Jactet, Karen Johnson, Lana LaChapelle, Wayne McCurdy, Roelofe Oosting, Patricia Patterson, Linda Potts, Douglas Robinson, Susan Rose, Ruth Scales, Gordon Spencer, and Brenda St. Pierre.

The Graduation Diplomas were presented by W. J. Musgrove, principal of the school and by Donald Williams, Chairman of the Hastings County Board of Education. There were 97 Grade 13 diplomas presented.

Gerald E. Boyce, vice-principal of the school and Raymond Rowe, a member of the board, presented 220 Grade 12 students with their Secondary School Graduation Diplomas. Forty-six Stirling students were among the 220 who accepted their diplomas.

The list included Susan Benson, Mike Burley, Ken Couch, Kathryn Dillabough, Janet Duffin, Grant Dunham, Richard Farrell, Elizabeth Followell, Robert Goodman, Derek Hawker, Douglas Irish, Joyce Jeffs, Lorraine Jeffs, Beverly Juby, Kathy Ketchen, Brian Kleinsteuber, Ruth Lee, Barry Linn, Ann Maguire, Robert McInosh, Denise Meeks, Judith Merrill, Kathryn Morton, Douglas Murray, David Parsonson, Bruce Philip, Mary Potter, Duane Pyar, John Rogers, Marie Runnals, Donald Sager, Anne Sager, David Stapley, Susan Tucker, Wayne Tucker, Kathryn Valcher, Nelly Vanderkooy, Linda Walker, Philip Wall, Peter West, Robert Whattam, Elaine Whitehead, Catherine Wickens, Bonnie Williams, Arthel Wilson, and Richard Wright.

Master of ceremonies' duties were shared by Dennis Fralick, prime minister of the student parliament and parliament secretary, Miss Chris Fulton.

The graduation exercises were student-centred with Centennial's prize-winning band massed on stage, and with students in charge of most of the organization. Following the ceremonies, a dinner, prepared by the home economics students, was served in the cafeteria.

Victor Rabel and Miss Gilliam Miller shared the valedictorian honors at the graduation. Mr. Rabel told the audience of more than 1,000 that the graduates had become "licensed problem solvers." But Mr. Rabel also told the recipients of honor graduation diplomas: "Rational thinking is just a side attraction in the circus of life."

Mr. Rabel said that the class of 1971 at Centennial was unique because the building was still under construction when this year's graduates entered Grade 9, and Mr. Miller, who shared the valedictorian honors, urged her fellow graduates to "take this system and use it to your advantage."

Mr. Musgrove, Principal of Centennial, told the students present that self-confidence and pride were two necessary attributes for their success in life ahead.

"Four ancestors survived by doing the impossible and you too have that potential," he said. "Be an individual, unswayed by the emotions of the masses."

Mr. Williams, board chairman and Mr. Rowe, trustee, represented the Hastings County Board of Education at the Saturday evening graduation. Mr. Williams paid tribute to the principals and teaching staff of the school and noted that the school was one of the best with its modern facilities and dedicated people.

Mr. Williams also said mass communication made students aware of the dangers of the modern world.

"I am glad you are interested in the problems of the world," he said. "But I hope your concern is demonstrated by responsible actions."

Centennial had 21 Ontario Scholar graduates this year. Four of these graduates were from the Stirling area. They are Richard Camm, James Followell, Gayle Hoover and Wayne McCurdy. The scholarships were presented by Mr. J. Irwin, vice-principal of the school.

The Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club Award, The Hilda Collier Memorial Bursary, was presented to Kathryn Morton by Mrs. C. Lockyer. Richard Camm was presented with the Hastings County Board of Education Award for Academic Achievement in Grade 13 Geography while John Bissell was presented with the same award in grade 9 Science. The award in grade 10 English was presented by Mr. Williams.

The Chapman Award to the student who had made the most progress last year in Auto Mechanics was presented to Peter West by Mr. J. Sherry. The English department presentation to the Best Dramatic Achievement of the past year was made to Kathy Johnson by Miss L. Arnot.

The Student Parliament Student Activities Award for active participation in student activities was presented to the Best Dramatic Achievement of the past year was made to Kathy Johnson by Miss L. Arnot.

The 11th Alpha Mu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Award for further studies related to the family relationship was awarded to Jane Bush by Mrs. S. Alcorn.

The Honorable J. R. Cooke Scholarship was awarded to Wayne McCurdy and was presented by W. Camm.

Under the Canadian Federation of University Women, Belleville and District Scholarships, Jane Bush was presented with the Manly MacDonald Scholarship by Miss M. Gibson. The Beverly MacDonald Scholarship was awarded to Lana LaChapelle by Miss M. Gibson.

Janet Spencer, Ruth Lee, and Linda Walker were presented with the Department of University Affairs Ontario Secondary School Awards. They were presented by D. Bell.

The I.O.D.E. Honorable J.R. Cooke Chapter Award for Academic Achievement was presented to Lana LaChapelle by Mrs. C. Harrop.

The Queen's University Lawlor Memorial Scholarship was awarded to Richard Camm and presented by J.L. Good, former principal of Stirling-Rawdon District High School.

Cenotaph service Thursday morning

Stirling veterans and others who wish to pay tribute to the fallen of two World Wars will gather at the cenotaph at 10:50 a.m. on Thursday for a service conducted by Royal Canadian Legion Branch 228, under president Douglas Patterson.

Legion members will assemble at the Community Hall to parade to the cenotaph.

There will be two musical numbers and the Last Post, timed so that the two minutes silence will take place at 11 a.m.

Rev. J. McGarvey will be in charge of the service, with Rev. Roy A. Taylor bringing the address.

Following the service, members will return to the community hall for a social, then travel to Harold Cenotaph for a brief service.

There will be a dinner at the Stirling Legion Thursday night, with Mr. Taylor as guest speaker.

Minutes silence will take place at 11 a.m.

Foxboro Co-op to merge with UCO

Members of Foxboro Co-operative voted to merge their co-operative with United Co-operatives of Ontario. The decision was made at a members meeting held at the Gilead Community Hall near Foxboro on Wednesday, October 27. The vote carried by a 90% majority of the members present.

The Board of Directors, led by Henry Vankinopp, President, unanimously recommended the merger to members. A special members information meeting had been held several weeks ago when the facts and reasons for the merger were first reviewed. Foxboro Co-operative Directors reported steady sales last year but the co-operative was finding it increasingly difficult, because of its size ($360,391 in assets), to provide credit to large farm accounts, improve facilities and build new ones, and provide leadership in farm input cost control. These were key reasons behind the decision to merge with United Co-operatives, UCO is a province-wide co-operative that had sales last year exceeding $120 million, with assets of $50 million. Foxboro Co-op has been a corporate member-shareholder of UCO since 1964.

The Foxboro Board was to see co-operative services to farmers maintained and broadened to serve as many people as possible in the future. They want to see the services remain in the hands of co-operative members, and so in looking to ways and means to do these things, they turned to UCO. It has been a supplier to Foxboro Co-op of many of the goods and services used by members and patrons in this area. It is owned by 35,000 members in Ontario, including 65 other co-operatives similar to Foxboro.

An immediate advantage for Foxboro members was demonstrated to them at the meeting when Don Huff, UCO District Manager, told them of the UCO member special program that was held on October 23 and 24 at the Foxboro Co-op.

The merger means the present Board of Directors will relinquish their posts in favor of a Council of elected people. For the year, however, members agreed that the Board should serve as the provisional council. Members of the Foxboro Co-operative will receive equity in UCO in return for their equity in Foxboro Co-op. The transfer of this members' ownership will take place some time in the next few months, but the merger is effective immediately. All of the staff, and the manager Alvin Donaldson, will continue as UCO staff.

Rylstone woman bags two deer

Mrs. Lewis (Marian) Fennell showed herself to be very adept at handling a gun this past week, while hunting with her sister and other friends near Haliburton.

On Thursday morning, Mrs. Fennell sighted a fawn which she brought down with two shots, Saturday, about 1 o'clock, she shot an 8-point buck in the jaw, and finished it off with a shot between the eyes.

The Fennells are a family of nimrods. Lewis and her two sons, Gary and Pat, were hunting moose recently, when Gordon Meiklejohn shot a moose with a 4 foot, 4 inch antler spread. Mr. Fennell leaves today for the deer hunt. No doubt he will try to better his wife's score.

News-Argus Notebook

JUENILE GAME - A goal scored by Jack DeBruyn enabled the Stirling Juvenile hockey team to tie the Trenton B. Junies in an exhibition game Sunday night in Wellington. The game ended in a 2-2 deadlock. The other Stirling marksman was Ron Andrews. For Stirling, it was their first game of the new season. The regular season will open next Monday night in Havelock. Ice-making at the Stirling arena is currently taking place. If the cold weather remains, it should be ready for play soon.

LAYMAN'S SUNDAY at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Stirling was conducted by five members of the congregation - Earl Fox gave the sermon; Maurice Faulkner led the responsive reading; Ken Tompkins read the scripture lesson; Eugene Burrell told the children's story and Lynn Jones conducted the balance of the service.

CHRISTMAS MAIL - The Postmaster-General has announced dates for sending Christmas parcels and cards in order they reach destinations on time. Distant Points in Canada and USA, December 8; the rest of Canada December 13; local delivery December 17. Householders received a descriptive folder this week detailing dates for specific countries overseas.

FRANKFORD VISIT - Melvin Frost of Ottawa, Grand Master of the Royal Black Knights of Eastern Ontario, will pay an official visit to FR 631, Frankford on November 17.

HUNTING RESULTS - A number of local deer hunters who spent last week in the bush have returned to their jobs this week, although many are still enjoying the hunt, along with a new crop of hunters who entered the bush over the weekend. One party, consisting of Donald R. Williams, David Scott, Robert Anderson, Ross Anderson, John Eaton, Daryl Anderson, Brian Anderson and Alton and Earl Ferguson bagged four deer last week in an area north of Lingham Lake, near Cooper.

GIRLS HOCKEY - The Stirling Ken Sine Fuels girls hockey team apparently lost none of its finest players over the long summer layoff. In their first encounter of the new season, an exhibition game Sunday in Wellington against the Picton-Wellington Combines, the Stirling team skated away with a 5-1 victory. Susan Wright potted four of the Stirling goals with Shelley Farrell finding the mark on the fifth one. Stirling will begin its regular schedule of games Sunday night in Wellington against the same Picton-Wellington crew.

LIGHTS ARE ON - Monday was a busy day for several local businesses as they went to work and erected festive lighting fixtures throughout the downtown district. Stirling took on a pre-Christmas appearance when the lights came on at sundown.

Community school concept gets boost

The community school concept, which got off the ground last year in Hastings County, was a real success in Stirling, received an additional boost Monday night from the Hastings County Board of Education, during its regular meeting here.

A presentation outlining the beginning of the concept here and how it is now working, was presented by David L. Smith, Coordinator of the Community School Program. Also involved were school principals from Belleville and Bancroft, whose pupils have reaped benefits from the work, and Mrs. Lois Benson, chairman of the Stirling group. It was noted by James Clarke, first chairman of the county board, that early in its policy setting stages, the Hastings board agreed that all possible use of the school buildings, which belong to the taxpayers, should be made. Pursuing this idea, the board explained its plan to the Department of Education, and subsequently received a grant of $15,000 for development of this work. A committee interviewed applicants and this resulted in the hiring of Mr. Smith.

Since his arrival on the scene from Thunder Bay, he has been active with various community groups, now numbering 15, that have some type of community school function operating. He estimates there may be another 15

Several trustees questioned the fact that use of the schools costs the board more money in caretaking and services, but it was quickly pointed out that the dividends returned in pupil-school and parent-school relations have already more than outweighed any expense involved.

The board agreed to continue to support the program in whatever way it could. Mr. Smith said now that his office has an idea what type of programs could be carried out, he was just at the beginning stage of really being useful in the program.

Arthur Broadworth found dead

A life resident of the Stirling district, Arthur William Broadworth, Front Street, Stirling, died Saturday as result of a drowning accident at German's Landing in Murray Township. He was in his 69th year.

Mr. Broadworth had gone fishing alone and his body was found floating in the river after his empty boat drifted ashore. Born at Marmora, he was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William J. Broadworth, and had lived at Stirling for the past 17 years. He was a retired employee of the Ontario Department of Highways.

He was a member of Spring Brook L.O.L. No. 442, and of the Canadian Legion at Marmora.

A bachelor, he is survived by four brothers, Ernest and Kenneth of Stirling, Raymond of Lindsay, Gerald of R.R. 4, Marmora, and Donald of Victoria, B.C. A sister Mrs. Frank (Laura) Knight, also lives in Victoria. One sister, Mrs. Wallace (Eva) McIntyre, predeceased him.

The funeral was held Tuesday from the Hogle Funeral Home at Stirling with service in the chapel at 1:30 p.m. Interment, Bethel Cemetery.

On Saturday the guides went on a hike and held scavenger hunts.

Centennial service draws overflow crowd

(by Mrs. Percy MacMullen)

The centennial anniversary service of Mount Pleasant United Church was held on Sunday morning, November 7, with approximately 275 people in attendance.

A loud speaker carried the service to an overflow group in the church hall.

Former members and guests were in attendance from Cope-town, Oshawa, Picton, Belleville, Trenton, Campbellford, Maddox, Hards and the Stirling area.

Ross Hoard was in charge of the guest book.

The church was a bower of beauty with eight large bouquets of colorful 'mums.

The family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ernest White and their daughter, the late Elda Stone, were assisted by Mr. and Mrs.
Ralph Westcott, Oshawa in placing a large container of memorial flowers on the front table.

Also a basket of white 'mums was placed on the front table by the Campbell family in memory of Donald Campbell.

Mrs. Mac Sharp, organist, Harvey Couch, harmonica and Kenneth Couch, accordion rendered a musical prelude previous to the service and they also provided the music for the hymns and the offering.

The very appropriate hymns were, The Churches One Foundation, I love Thy Kingdom Lord, and Now Thank We All Our God.

The psalm selection centred around the theme "Sing unto the Lord a new song." The scripture lessons were found in Romans, Chapter One and Luke, Chapter Seventeen.

The junior choir rendered
"The Lord is My Shepherd" with Miss Jeannette Hoard accompaning and Brenda Williams as director.

The senior choir sang "O God our Help" with Mrs. James Hoard as director.

Rev. W. C. Cox conducted the service and dedicated a new pulpit chair. This was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McConnell in memory of Mr. and Mrs.
Conger McConnell and also by Mona David and daughters, Rae and Debbie in memory of the late Ira David, daughter Mary Ellen and son, Roy.

The offering was gathered by Larry, David and Fred Jeffs and Grant Dunham. The special message was given by Rev. Fred Joblin of Port Credit, Ontario.
He chose as his subject, "Our Debt of Gratitude."

He paid tribute to all those pioneers who built the church in 1871 and also to all who had labored in God's vineyard at Mount Pleasant all down through the years.

He gave many personal thoughts about his young days in the area when his father, the late Fred G. Joblin, was pastor of Rawdon charge for 12 years.

The speaker congratulated those who had worked so faithfully to celebrate 100 years of church history in this community and gave many reminiscences of by gone days.

At the close of the service 250 people enjoyed a full course chicken dinner served buffet style in the church hall.

Several members of the UCW were in charge of the arrangements.

This service concludes a series of centennial services held during 1971 in honor of the 100 years of existence for Mount Pleasant United Church. The church was dedicated in 1871 as Hubble Hill Methodist Episcopal church and in 1900 the edifice was renamed Mount Pleasant. Special services this year have been held in June, July, August, September and November.

Mount Pleasant United Church still stands as a beacon on the top of the hill providing a place of worship for all who are interested.

May our prayer for the year ahead be:

One God, one Lord, one Faith,
One heavenly food we share,
One call to serve and follow
Christ,
Whose blessed name we bear.

ARDA supports winter works

Several Winter Work Projects supervised by the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests will be financed from Federal.

Provincial sources through the Agricultural and Rural Development Agreement (A.R.D.A.).

These projects will for the most part employ rural people in forest stand improvement work. This is essential work needed to provide the more valuable tree species with a better opportunity to develop through eliminating competition from poor species, dead or diseased trees and trees which have not developed properly.

H. F. Crown, director, ARDA Branch, Ontario Department of Agriculture and Food has placed high priority on providing these additional employment opportunities for rural people and with the co-operation of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests projects have been approved for Renfrew, Hastings, Haliburton, Peterborough, Victoria, Parry Sound and Nipissing.

SHOVELLER

Shoveller or spoonbill is a small, freshwater duck with a unique bill. This is large and broadly spatulate toward the tip, it is equipped with a fringe of comb-like lamellae along the edges of both upper and lower mandibles. These form an efficient strainer. Beakfuls of aquatic plant and animal life are "shovelled" from the water, strained by closing the bill and contents eaten.

CARE's fall drive is now under way

Schooling and health help will receive major emphasis in the allocation of $200,000.00 of undesignated funds that Canadians have given to CARE in the past six months, it was decided this week at a meeting of the Executive Committee of CARE of Canada.
Many CARE donors designate a particular country and project but every six months the Committee meets to decide how the undesignated funds will be spent. This time they allocated $100,000.00 to self-help projects in Kenya and Lesotho to provide equipment for community health centres, supplies for schools, cattle dips in farm areas, pure water supplies for villages, bridges and roads to markets. The emphasis will be on education and health because in those countries the infant mortality rate runs as high as 150 deaths per thousand live births, and illiteracy as high as 75% of the population.
The rest of the $200,000.00 was channelled to the support of CARE's Food Crusade programs in Haiti and Sierra Leone. The Food Crusade provides one nutritious meal a day for school children and/or food for work, for refugees, disaster victims and others.
The cattle dip program is an example of CARE's self-help projects. Tick-infested cattle are dipped in tanks containing a solution effective against parasites. CARE supplies materials and instructions. The recipients provide land and labor, and many village farmers donate a cow for auction to put added money into the pot.
By such partnership efforts - plus purchasing direct from suppliers, obtaining donations of surplus goods, foodstuffs and transportation - CARE is able to provide $5.00 in aid for every $1.00 donated.
CARE's fall campaign emphasizing the World of CARE is now underway. It aims to raise $500,000.00 to continue the programs and projects already being carried out in 32 countries overseas. On the spot CARE personnel are in charge of the actual projects and CARE is officially recognized by both the host and Canadian Governments as a registered charitable organization. Donations may be forwarded to CARE-Canada, 63 Sparks, OTTAWA K1P 5A6 and a receipt for income tax deduction will be provided.
The voluntary members of CARE's Executive Committee are: K. B. Andras, President of Andras, Hatch and Hetherington; A. C. Ashforth, former President of the Toronto-Dominion

Bank; H. E. Langford, Q.C., former President of Chartered Trust and former Chairman of the Ontario Securities Commission; A. Ross Poyntz, President of Imperial Life; J. L. Steward, Q.C., senior partner of Fraser and Beatty.

WEEKLY REPORT FROM FOXBORO DISTRICT

SUPPLEMENTS verses NO SUPPLEMENTS
Some beef feeders do not feed any supplements to their cattle, often because they don't see the potential value compared to costs.
Sometimes when the beef producer feeds free choice mineral with or without grain, he sees his cattle doing better than if they had none of these nutrients. The cattle should show some results, because of the increased protein, but from our experience the results aren't as good or as economical as when a supplement is fed.
Evidence of the value of supplement comes from a test conducted in 1970 by the Middlesex Beef Improvement Association. This organization had 2 groups of 16 cattle, and 2 groups of 15 cattle, all housed in one barn but separate pens. All cattle were given salt and mineral free choice; and were fed over a 5 month period, as follows:
Group A - Corn silage plus 2 lbs. oats
Group B - Corn silage plus 2 lbs. corn Group C - Corn silage plus 4% 48% Cattle Supplement Group D - Corn silage plus 4% 48% supplement plus 2 lbs. of corn Results were interesting:

	A	B	C	D
Total Gain in lbs.	192	206	236	278
Average Daily Gain	1.3 lb.	1.4 lb.	1.6 lb.	1.9 lb.
Feed Cost/Animal	$22.84	$23.07	$25.72	$30.56
Feed Cost/lb. of gain	11.36	11.25	10.95	11.05
Margin/Animal	$13.17	$16.47	$24.92	$32.31

Obviously the 48% Supplement paid for itself through higher growth rate. Overhead costs were not included, so the results could have been even better.

The same kind of results have been obtained in other beef feeding trials in the U.S.A.

Board meeting locally

The Hastings County Board of Education may be unique in its field, if correspondence is any indication.
At Monday night's board meeting in Stirling, several letters were circulated among the members which expressed thanks for operation.

At this point, one board member asked "Don't we every get any critical mail?" Director of Education Eric Runcare pointed out that in his experience, this board was unique because he could not recall any such mail in the time he had been on the job. He noted there were occasionally letters which were handed to specific principals for action, but as far as matters requiring board attention, they appeared to be non-existent, at least from the mail.
One Trenton resident complained to the board that in the morning, his daughters could both ride to high school, while in the afternoon, one rode home and one walked.
It was pointed out this has been discussed with Rathbun Bus Lines and the split shift in use at Trenton High School is the main cause. Once the Bayside School is opened, this will be alleviated.
One member also commented that on inclement days, it is hard to know how many will ride compared with good weather, and therefore it is difficult to know how many buses are needed. The transportation committee was directed to look into the matter.

Welcome to the community of Stirling was extended by Councilor Edward Klompaker, on behalf of Reeve Robert Anderson, also by Reeve Jack Bush of Sidney Township and Principal George Patton, who outlined the history of the local schools. Total enrollment here is 528 at the senior school, 231 at the junior and 95 at Marsh Hill.
The board agreed to set up transportation for pupils at the school for the deaf in Belleville, so the children can be home every second weekend instead of the present three times a year. This will cost the board about $172 for 20 round trips, being organized by the school bus service.

J. D. Cad Construction was awarded a tender for renovations to the Trenton High School Auditorium in the amount of $26,144. The budgeted amount was $28,000. Only one other tender was received, from Miron-Wigors, which was $32,385.

Stirling Teen League Bowling

On Friday night, Nov. 5, the Hi-Los (25) took all five points from the Chargers (14) and the Gutters (11) took three points from the Strikers (10) which got the remaining 2 points.
Susan Wright bowled games of 158 and 229 for girl's high single, high double of 387 and high average of 224.
Paul Jones bowled games of 191 and 231 for boy's high single, high double of 422, high average of 213.
Other good games were received by Trevor Crossman, 175; John Bissell, 144; Robbie Hutton, 140; Faith Little, 148, and 177; Tyler Crossman 181, 139; Debbie Montgomery, 165 and 181.

The last meeting of the Rylstone Homemaking Club was held at the home of Mrs. Ruth Lowe on Saturday, November 6. The roll call was answered on how the girls had improved their bedrooms.
During the business part of the meeting, the minutes were read by Marlene Shortt. Pamphlets were distributed. Books are to be finished and handed in by November 9.
A discussion was held pertaining to the Color Charts. How to Judge Accessories for Achievement Day. Achievement Day will be held in Madoc High School on November 20.

A Day To Remember

Few dates should mean more to Canadians than November 11 -- the date that hostilities ended in the Great War. Canada has never been a great military nation, and probably never will be, although the role she plays today of peace keeping is an important one in this time in which we live. She did have her glories in that War that was fought mainly in trenches; that saw the first and only time that brutal gas was used, and that proved for the first time in this century, that one nation, by might alone, cannot rule the world.

Canadians lie not only in Flanders Fields, but in every wartime cemetery from France to the Italian boot, from the deserts of North Africa, to the waters of Hong Kong Bay; from the shores of Normandy to the walls of Berlin. They lie there because for a second time in 25 years, the same nation sought to rule the world with superior arms and supposedly a superior race of human beings. The rule that was to last 1,000 years, lay smashed in the bunkers of Berlin just six years after some of the most treacherous, infamous negotiations the world had then seen.

November 11 has become more than a day of memories for the vets from the Great War, most now at an age where their physical condition precludes anything but a walk in the fall air, and conversations with what cronies are left.

November 11 is a date set aside for all Canadians to stop and reflect how fortunate they are to live in one of the most highly developed nations of the world; with a full stomach and a warm bed each night; the promise of a future that is joyously rewarding if one will walk out into the world and grasp the opportunities that are there.

Nearly three score years ago, 55,000 of our native sons left this land to defend a way of life they thought paramount, and went to some foreign grave, perhaps marked, perhaps not. Thirty years have passed since the second call to another generation steeped in the same philosophy. Surely we who have emerged as those inheritors of the legacy these lives bought, can afford to stop for a few minutes and recall this sacrifice.

November 11 -- a time to remember.

The Canadian National Institute For The Blind

Letters are always welcome

BY LYNN JONES
Do residents of Stirling and area have nothing to get off their chest these days, or are all their pencils broken?

I ask this question because since arriving here two months ago, I can recall only one letter to the editor of the News-Argus. Even during the election campaign, no one was enthusiastic enough to send in a letter, I doubt things are running so smoothly that all residents who read this paper are happy with everything affecting their lives.

Most newspapers have lots of comment from readers to publish on their editorial pages. We are not looking for crank letters, or pet peeves but comments, good or bad, from the citizens of Stirling and the surrounding townships. From these letters, we may learn of an area that needs investigating; find out there is a facet of the news we are either missing or over-emphasizing; glean material for future editorials or columns.

The editorial page of any paper is a place where the readers are free to have a say, provided the letters are signed, and do not contain anything of a libelous nature. We would even accept letters to be printed with a pen-name, provided the author also signed the letter in person.

We want to point out that we are not looking for comments on the newspaper, particularly, although we do want to know your opinions of our editorials, or the way we publish news. What we feel is lacking is reader comment, for or against, on the action of local councils, civic groups, sports groups, etc. If people take a few minutes to pen us a short comment, it shows they are at least aware of what is going on in the community.

Weekly newspapers such as the News-Argus do not get involved in world and national affairs to a great extent. The purpose of this type of newspaper is to present local news and comment, aimed primarily at local residents. We can only write so much, with staff and production limitations being what they are. Beyond that limit, we depend on your interest in happenings, to keep us aware of things that might otherwise pass by.

If you have a comment, let us have it. Show your neighbors you are aware of what is happening in Stirling, Rawdon, Sidney and Huntingdon, or even a little further afield, if that is where you live.

Won't you write this week?

Tree planting is planned

The Forestry and Land Use Board of the Lower Trent Region Conservation Authority has launched a Program to assist Private Land Owners to do something about the Areas that are not suitable for Agriculture.

The Program, which will apply to the 1972 Planting Season, provides a subsidy of $8, per thousand trees and will be limited to a maximum of 5,000 trees to any one Land Owner, in any given year. Trees cost approximately $10, per M, and it is the feeling of this Advisory Board that some of the cost should be borne by the Owner.

Any Land Owner wishing to apply for this assistance from the Lower Trent Region Conservation Authority, should write to the L.T.R. Conservation Authority, P.O. Box 402, Trenton, Ont., and an application Form will be forwarded to you. If convenient, a phone call to 613-392-4527 will be sufficient.

Faith festival planned

The president of the Bay of Quinte Conference of the United Church of Canada, John Black, and his executive, have asked each of the seven Presbyteries throughout the Conference to set aside the date of November 14 for a Service of Re-dedication of United Church people.

On that day, at an hour to be set by each Presbytery, United Church people will congregate at a designated place within their own Presbytery for the special service to be conducted as a Faith Festival.

Every local church within the Conference has been asked to plan for its own participation in this event, to inform all of its members, and to provide transportation where necessary.

The Faith Festival, under the theme "We Are Not Alone" is to reaffirm the fundamental faith of the Church, and to call all

United Church people together in witness to it. "We are on the verge of great things," said Mr. Black, "but we cannot enter upon them without a vital Christian faith."

The Faith Festival Service for Belleville Presbytery will be held in Bridge Street United Church, Belleville on Sunday, November 14 at 1:00 p.m. Those participating in the service are Rev. Nathan Bowering, John Black and Rev. Gervais Black.

The offering from this service will be sent through the M & S Fund of the Church in aid of the Pakistani Refugees.

Wellman's WI

The October meeting of Wellman's W.I., was held at the home of the president, Mrs. John Carlisle, with 13 ladies and two children in attendance. Mrs. Ernest Thain was convener for this historical Research meeting.

After opening the meeting with the Ode and Lord's Prayer the roll call was answered by naming a family tradition in the home today.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Mrs. Gerald Russell.

Mrs. Byron Seeley expressed thanks for cards received when she was in the hospital.

Dates were chosen for a card party and the Christmas concert. Mrs. John Carlisle paid to the birthday box.

Current events were reported by some members.

The motto, "Wholesome homes are stepping stones of a generation" was given by Mrs. Douglas Clancy.

Mrs. Carlisle gave a report of the Trent Valley Area convention.

Mrs. Kenneth Tompkins introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Donald McIntosh. She and her husband have been making a collection of bells and have brought a display of about 100. There were some from many parts of the world, a variety of animal bells, door bells, wind bells, the smaller lady bells and tea bells and several other types.

Mrs. Thain thanked Mrs. McIntosh and presented her with a gift.

After closing the meeting with the Mary Stewart Collect and God Save the Queen, Mrs. Gerald Clancy, Mrs. Byron Seeley, and Mrs. Gerald Russell assisted the hostess in serving lunch.

WILLIAM JOHN SCOTT

A resident of West Huntingdon for 45 years after coming to Canada from his birthplace in Kilkeel, Northern Ireland, William John Scott died Saturday, Oct. 23, in Belleville General Hospital following a period of failing health. He was in his 75th year.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. James Scott, he is survived by his wife, the former Josephine Graham.

His seven children also survive: Mrs. Archie (Eleanor) Bailey, Rawdon; Mrs. Lorne (Ida) Stapley, Stirling; Mrs. Leon (Elsie) Wilson, Foxboro; Mrs. Glen (Edith) Brooks, Verona; Miss Mae Scott, Toronto; Cecil Scott, Foxboro; and Dave Scott, Belleville. He had 19 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Two sisters, Ida and Bella, predeceased Mr. Scott. He leaves a brother, David, and a sister, Mrs. Joe (Mina) Wilson, both of Kilkeel.

The funeral was held last Monday at 2 p.m. from Grace Chapel in Stirling. Officiating was David Kirk who also read the service at the graveside in Eggleston Cemetery.

Bearers, all grandsons, were Randy and Clifford Scott, Graham Brooks, Frank and John Bailey and Don Wilson.

Do You Remember?

25 Years Ago

Earl McMullen, Rawdon Township farmer, brought one of the largest radishes the writer has ever seen to this office one day this week. He was plowing his garden when he uncovered the big one, which has a circumference of 27 inches and weighs 11 lbs., 5 ounces. It has nine roots, the longest of which is 14 1/2 inches, and when turned upside down it resembles an octopus.

Madoc man named to OMMB

Madoc area farmer Allen Ketcheson will continue as the area's representative on the Ontario Milk Marketing Board, voters in the three-county area decided Tuesday.

With over 1,450 eligible voters, representing both fluid and industrial shippers in the three counties, the turnout was comparatively light, with only 615 ballots cast.

Mr. Ketcheson defeated his nearest opponent, Athol Township farmer Harry Evans, by a majority of 192 votes, polling 396 votes to Mr. Evans' 177.

The third candidate was Mr. Helen Lang of Shannonville, who polled 42 votes.

The voting turnout was somewhat higher in Prince Edward County than in the three-county average, with 211 voting of an eligible 428.

Trent lectures are planned

Former federal finance minister Walter Gordon and Parti Quebecois deputy leader Jacques Parizeau have accepted invitations to participate in the 1971 Champlain Lectures at Trent University on November 19 and 20.

They will join eight other well-known Canadians in an open debate on the question "Is There an English Canada Worth Preserving?" The Champlain lectures are held annually as part of Trent's public lecture series.

Mr. Parizeau will examine the theme of the lectures from the French-Canadian viewpoint in an address at 8:30 p.m. on Friday, November 19, in the great hall of Champlain College. Small group sessions will follow his address.

The debate will continue through Saturday, with Mr. Gordon, M.H. Watkins, leader of the NDP's Warfile group; Ian Adams, author of The Poverty Wall; Professor G. Horowitz of the department of political economy, University of Toronto; David MacDonald, MP for Egmont, PEI;

Mei Hurling, Alberta author and publisher; Professor Garry Clarke of the department of classics, Laurentian University; W.L. Morton, Vanier professor of history at Trent; and Leandre Bergeron, author of the best-selling A Patriot's History of Quebec.

During the debate, the theme of the lectures will be considered from several points of view - economic, political-institutional, cultural, and philosophical. With separate chairmen for each of these segments, Professor T.E.W. Nind, vice-president academic of Trent, will chair the economic section; Professor J.D. Page of the university's department of history, the political-institutional section; Eric Jackson, director of Laurentian Project (Peterborough), the cultural section; and Michel Trudeau, a fourth-year Trent student, the philosophical section.

Rylstone WI

Rylstone Women's Institute held their November meeting in the WI hall on Wednesday afternoon with an attendance of 18 ladies. Mrs. Jack Watson, president, was in charge and opened with the Institute Ode and the roll call answered by "A vegetable or fruit containing Vitamin C."

The Christmas meeting was discussed and ladies from Zion, and Stanwood Churches and Gospel Chapel will be invited. The members were reminded to bring home-made candy, fancy cookies or bazaar items, for the bazaar table. There will also be a gift exchange, with gifts valued at 75¢.

A discussion was held concerning the possibility of holding card parties in the WI hall to raise funds. It was decided to try having one party each month. Mrs. Carl Reid and Mrs. Ellis Jones were chosen as a committee for the December party. There will be further notice of the parties in a local paper. Mrs. Ernest Irwin, delegate to the area convention in Belleville gave her report and the meeting was turned over to Mrs. Paul McKeown who had taken the leaders course on "The Knack of Sewing with Knite." She distributed booklets with the same title as the previously mentioned course and explained the modern knit materials which have become so popular and the proper way to choose materials and sizes and how to find your proper size.

Duck hunting permitted at Presqu'île

Ducks, geese, rails, coots, gallinules, woodcock and Wilson's snipe may be hunted every Monday, Wednesday, Thursday and Saturday at Presqu'île and Darlington Provincial Parks in Lindsay Forest District to December 15th, 1971.

Shooting hours are from one-half hour before sunrise to one hour before sunset on the days noted above. Hunting is permitted only from blinds supplied by the department of lands and forests. Each blind may be occupied by one or two hunters who must purchase a special Park Waterfowl Permit which costs $4.00 per day. Each blind requires only one permit whether occupied by one or two hunters. These permits will be available on a first come, first served basis at the park offices starting at 5:00 a.m. on shooting days. Hunters obtaining these permits will be required to surrender their provincial small game hunting licence. It will be returned by the park office when leaving the park.

Hunters are reminded that in addition to the provincial small game hunting licence a Canadian Migratory Game Bird Hunting Permit, available from any post office for a fee of $2.00 is required to hunt ducks, geese and other migratory birds. Hunters must be in possession of both licences before being issued a special Park Waterfowl Permit. Unless otherwise stated, the same bag limits and regulations made under the Migratory Birds Convention Act and Regulations apply in both parks as in other parts of Central Zone of the Province.

Rylstone Homemakers hold meeting

The seventh meeting of the Rylstone 4-H Homemakers Club was held on Saturday, Oct. 23 at the home of Mrs. E. Brunton. The meeting was opened with the 4-H pledge and for the roll call the members had to tell of a new sewing technique learned by the club.

During the business part of the meeting, Elaine Brunton read the minutes. The demonstration was of the Italian hemstitching. For group work, every girl did her own sample.

Rebekahs hold meeting

The regular meeting of Laurel Rebekah Lodge #211 was held in the 100¢ Temple, Stirling, with the Noble Grand, Sister Madeline Walker, presiding. The members were extended a warm welcome and the Vice Grand, Sister Marie Stapp, reported that the sick members had all been attended in the regular way. An invitation was received from Quintana Rebekah Lodge of Belleville to attend their bazaar which will be held in November and an invitation for members to attend the opening services of the new Grace Chapel. After the closing of the meeting, Sister Patricia Merrill, PNG, staff captain, had a short practice for the new officers.

Studded tire ban remains

TORONTO - The Highway Traffic Act does not provide for any exception to the ban on the use of studded tires in Ontario this winter, Deputy Minister of Transportation and Communications A.T.C. McNab said in a statement issued today.

"The regulation prohibiting their further use, which was passed last year, makes it an offence for any vehicle to be equipped with studs on Ontario highways, roads and streets," he said. Drivers using studs may be subject to fines ranging from $20 to $100.

Mr. McNab said the province took the lead in banning studs because research carried out in Ontario on their effectiveness and effects on highway damage was more advanced than other jurisdictions. "That research, and additional research conducted by the Canada Safety Council - an independent organization - during the past two winters supported earlier findings that studs offered only marginal aid in winter driving where icy road conditions existed," he said.

"The tremendous amount of research that has gone into the matter leads safety experts to believe that in a great many instances drivers using studded tires were operating under a false sense of security."

Regular snow tires and the use of steel tire chains, where necessary, are not affected by the ban. The increasing use of studs was found to be wearing off the skid-resistance texture of paved surfaces, creating extensive ruts and prematurely obliterating the white driving lane guide lines, said Mr. McNab.

"The combination of these results was causing a general hazardous driving condition that could affect all motorists," he added. He pointed out that the State of Minnesota also has banned the use of studs this winter.

Rawdon Township Council met at the fire hall on Nov. 1 with the members all present. The minutes of the last regular and special meeting were read and approved on a motion from Spencer and Heath.

IN MEMORIAM

WANNAMAKER - In loving memory of a dear father and papa Leonard William, who passed away on Oct. 11, 1969. What would we give if we could say, "Hello Dad," the same old way. To hear your voice and see your smile. And sit and talk with you awhile. We were not there today good-bye.

Perhaps it was just as well. We never could have said good-bye. To a dad we loved so well. We mourn for you in silence. No eyes can see us weep. But many a silent tear is shed. While others are asleep. Sadly missed and always remembered by daughter Sandra, and granddaughter, Kelly. 44-1

WANNAMAKER - In loving memory of a dear father and grandfather, Leonard William Wannamaker who passed away on November 11, 1969. We do not need a special day To bring you to our minds. For the days we do not think of you. Are very hard to find. If all this world were ours to give We'd give it yes and more. To see the face of father dear. Come smiling through the door. Ever remembered and sadly missed by son Wayne, daughter-in-law Helen, grandchildren Cheryl, Shelley, and Penny. 44-1

Bell seeks rate hike

The local rate for individual residence service in Stirling could go up 35 cents under the new schedule being proposed by Bell Canada.

Bell's costs, like everyone else's, have gone up, and the company says that expenses have outstripped revenues under its present rate schedule, explained Robert Carleton, Bell's Area

A Weekly Meditation

Members of the human race have the means to communicate with one another better than at any time in history. Instant communication is not only possible. It is taking place through communication satellites and the networks of electronics. Distant events are seen and heard in our living rooms as a matter of course.

As the quantity of information communicated increases, there appears to be less and less concern with the quality of what is seen and heard. There is a tremendous concern about pollution of our environment but seemingly no concern about the pollution of men's minds by what is daily communicated to them. We are so aware of the dangers of any kind of censorship that we assume that anything that can be communicated has a right to be published, seen and heard. When little consideration is given to the content of what is communicated the result is bound to be confusion and uncertainty. To suggest that it is important to distinguish between falsehood and truth and between right and wrong is to be branded as a reactionary and as an adherent of authoritarianism. Today we are being told to listen to a great variety of voices. Some say, "Listen to the world." We are told to listen to the poor, to the blacks, to the young, to Mao and innumerable others. The opinions expressed are not only varied but contradictory. It is widely assumed that there is no such thing as truth and no timeless and eternal values and ideals.

At a time when all authority is questioned and when men carefully ask "What is Truth?" it is noteworthy that the Bible is enjoying its widest readership in history. The Today's English Version New Testament, published five years ago by the Bible Society, has had a wide distribution of 30 million copies and has the largest distribution of any paperback ever published in English. This book is not being bought as a present or simply to be attractive on the shelf, but to be read. All over the world, hundreds of Bible Study groups which have no formal connection with any church have sprung up. Young people in their search for truth and a better way of life are reading the Bible. The Scriptures are now in 1431 languages and the Bible Societies last year distributed

River Valley WI

On Thursday afternoon, Nov. 4, Mrs. Harry Morrow was hostess at her home for the regular meeting of the River Valley Womens Institute. There were 21 members, four visitors and three pre-school children in attendance.

Mrs. George Grills opened with the Institute Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. Mrs. Gerald Brooks, Mrs. J. L. Donohoe and Mrs. Vernon Harry gave their reports. The leaders in charge of the Senior Sewing class reported 25 ladies in attendance at the centre. It is planned to have four evenings to cover the course.

The convenors brought messages in Health, Education and Current Events.

The A.C.W.W. officer, Mrs. Roy Tucker brought a message from 'The Countrywomen Magazine' re UNESCO gift coupon project $25 to aid Lesotho Home-makers Association. This is a small country with rough roads and merely tracks in the mountains suitable only for landrovers. The total membership in the club is now 6,000 women and in 1961 they became a constituent member of the Associated Country Women of the World. The most urgent need is dependable transport in order to develop the country.

The officers and executive committee urgently need a landrover in order to make regular visits to their mountain areas. The women are keen to learn a better way of living with diseases on literacy and nutrition.

A.C.W.W. has made an urgent appeal for support. The United Nations Association in Canada has a gift coupon office at 1554 Yonge Street, Suite 201, Toronto where donations can be sent. River Valley donated $10.00 to purchase two gift coupons.

A private donation to this fund was sent in June by Mrs. MacMullen who has been a contributing member of A.C.W.W. for several years.
The A.C.W.W. pennies for Oct. was $1.82 and they were gathered for November.

It was decided to have a voluntary offering of gifts for mental health. These are to be brought to the Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. J. R. Donohoe. A committee was appointed to arrange the banquet meal for the fish and game club.

It was decided to cater to a Legion banquet at a later date. The delegate's expenses to the area will be paid.
The Friendship Link secretary, Mrs. Percy MacMullen, sent a parcel, by airmail, of 48 individual gifts to Abbots Leigh WI members in England.

The parcel arrived in good condition and Mrs. MacMullen read an airmail letter of thanks from Mrs. E. Coombs, their link secretary. She said, "what a charming gift for us all and I'll be delighted to pass out the gifts at our birthday meeting. The letter contained current institute news and said early in October they had snow, torrential rain, floods and thunder. Now they have lovely sunshine.

The roll call was a remedy for tension and many ideas were given by the members.

Very interesting reports of the recent Trent Valley Area Convention, held at Club Canara, Belleville, were given by the two delegates, Mrs. Roy Tucker and Mrs. Vernon Harry.

Mrs. Ross Bush presided over the program and Mrs. Harry Morrow contributed a piano selection. Mrs. Roy Tucker introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. Lloyd Jones, who is a registered nurse, living in Stirling.

She is a County Health nurse and was also very instrumental in helping to organize a clothing cupboard at St. Paul's U.C.W. Mrs. Jones gave a very informative message on 'Your Heart'. She gave a graphic picture of how to look after your heart and explained in detail how the heart functions with four chambers.

The speaker outlined what is meant by high blood pressure, heart diseases, hardening of the arteries, coronary attacks, etc. She said, "do not cut out butter, eggs, or cheese from your diet unless your doctor advises you to do so."

Mrs. Jones also said, "tension causes a lot of trouble and should be avoided if possible. Rest is very essential. You should learn to take life easy and not overtax your heart."

The speaker suggested that a yearly check up was a good plan and to watch your weight, have nutritious meals, follow Canada's food rules, have regular exercise and avoid smoking. In closing she displayed a large number of bulletins which were free to the ladies to carry and read.

Mrs. Ross Bush voiced appreciative thanks to Mrs. Jones and made the presentation of a small gift on behalf of River Valley WI members.

The Institute grace was sung and refreshments were provided by Eva Tucker, Alta Carr and Bessie Bush.

Mrs. Sheldon McIntosh extended a gracious thank you to everyone for the successful afternoon.

MRS. ANNIE CUTHBERTSON (CAMPBELLFORD)

The funeral of Mrs. Annie Cuthbertson of Campbellford was held Monday, Oct. 25 at the Hogle Funeral Home, Stirling.

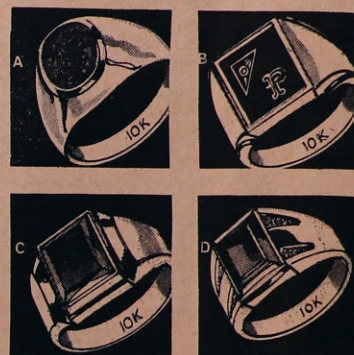

Officiating in the chapel and at the graveside in Burnbrae Cemetery was Rev. Arthur Wilkins of the Free Methodist Church.

The four bearers were Allan Watson, William McNabb, Ambrose Cooper and Donald Scott.

Remembrance Day service well attended

The following address was delivered by Rev. Roy A. Taylor, minister of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Stirling, during the annual Remembrance Day service at the local cenotaph Thursday morning.

In the 42nd chapter of Isaiah, we find these words, "I have put my Spirit upon him."

There is a standard by which all nations are tested, by which its native sons are given a task, and for which each man is endowed with certain abilities to perform them.

After our Lord had sent the disciples forth to proclaim His gospel, Jesus asked them "When I sent you...lacked you any thing?" to which their instant reply was, "Nothing." God never assigns a duty without also furnishing the proper equipment to complete the task.

Many peoples long for the kind of spirit that will make them equal to any task set before them. However, when that which must be done is clearly seen, people rise to the occasion with every ounce of courage and power they possess. They become stirred up by the power of the spirit within them.

This was the spirit that dwelt in the hearts of all the men and women of Canada who offered themselves for the task that was so plainly placed before them.

And when the going got rough, they proved that they "lacked nothing" to complete the job that had to be done. As it was with the disciples in ancient times, God had put His spirit upon them. They had the courage, the will, to do all that was required of them - and more!

In addition to this, there was a self-advancing in the kind of boasting of their accomplishments, (and I believe there are more unsung heroes in Canada than any other country in the world), but rather, they went about their task with only one thing in mind - victory, at whatever the cost. No iron curtain can conceal the quality of a people's life, nor can blind the impression of other nations to the greatness and extent of their inner selves.

The spirit of our fighting forces asked no quarter, and gave none. This nation's genuine service to mankind was discharged with a persuasiveness of quiet effectiveness. They were conscious only of the realization of a true ideal, and a worthy activity that would restore human virtue which was lacking among the nations.

To accomplish this task required endless endurance. The men and women who contracted to perform these duties showed that they had the courage, no faint hearts, nor weariness, discouraged their efforts. They knew they had been chosen people, endowed with a certain spirit, upon whom all eyes of the world were set, and only victory would satisfy them.

Masters of their own convictions and sense of duty to their country, to their community, to their immediate families, and to future generations, they fixed their sights on Christian standards of morality and justice, and collectively, acted to preserve human dignity and honor in service to all mankind. They gave their lives. Can we do less? May we ever continue to follow their excellent example, And God grant His richest blessings to do so.

Many wreaths laid at local cenotaph

Bert Bastedo, zone commander, Zone F3, Royal Canadian Legion; Stan Kosmack, first vice.

Senior Citizens well caked

After attending the Remembrance service in the morning of the 11th, over 45 Senior Citizens met at 2 p.m. and enjoyed games. Vice Pres. John Kane took charge of the meeting in the absence of the President. It was decided that we again play progressive euchre next week. The lunch for the day was provided by Edith Bradshaw, Gladys Elliott, Norma Williams and Florence Hough. Thanks girls.

Florence Hough was enjoying her birthday anniversary and Gladys Elliott baked cakes for the occasion. They say she baked her first cake at the age of ten and has been baking cakes for over 80 years since then. What a girl! Elwood Johnson was celebrating his birthday also and to his surprise and our pleasure his daughter-in-law, Mary presented him with a lovely lighted cake in his honor. We sure were well caked. In fact we were loaded, having four cakes for two birthdays. Someone said it reminded them of the cow that was born with six teats. She had two too many.

A teacher told her class, "Just think, light travels at the rate of about 186,000 miles a second. Isn't that amazing?"

"Oh I don't know," said a little six year old, "it's all downhill." dis ole Scribe

Third annual Col. Sanders championships

Throughout Canada in bowling houses whose operators are members of the Bowling Proprietors' Association of Canada the third Annual Colonial Sanders Ladies Daytime League Championships have taken place.

Entry was free and the league rounds were taken on a regular basis with a handicap per team of 80% of the difference between the 5 bowlers' averages and 1100. Fifty percent of the teams bowling advanced to the House Round.

Winners of the League Round from Wednesday afternoon's Merril Bowlers were Willy de Jonge, Pooles with 3279 and Linda Barron's Scotties with 3089. The League Round winners from Friday afternoon's Energetic League were Mabel Brook's Bowlinas with 3257 and Grace Tanner's Go Getters with 3216. Each of these ladies won a voucher for a chicken dinner.

The House Round for the above named four teams was held on Saturday afternoon, Nov. 6 and the winners were Linda Barron's Scotties with 3252 followed closely by the Bowlinas with 3221. The Merril Bowlers were victorious by buckets of Kentucky Fried Chicken, courtesy of Colonel Sanders and have won the right to represent Stirling Bowling Drome in Zone 'K' round on Sunday, Nov. 28 at Stirling Bowling Drome.

The Zone Round winners then go on to the Provincial Round and the Provincial winners in turn go on to the National Finals. This year is the East's turn to host the Finals; last year's being in Calgary. This is an all expense paid trip to Toronto, ending with a Victory Banquet with Colonel Sanders in attendance.

Good turnout at Cenotaph

Despite cold weather, a good crowd turned out for the annual Remembrance Day service at the cenotaph Thursday morning.

Nothing to music provided by the CFB Trenton Pipes and Drums, veterans, accompanied by members of the Scouting movement made their way from the Community Hall along Front St., and across the Rawdon Creek footbridge to the cenotaph area.

The service was conducted by Rev. J. F. McGarvey.

Those present sang O Canada and O Valiant Hearts, accompanied on the accordion by John DeVries.

Guest speaker was Rev. Roy A. Taylor of St. Andrew's Church. Most local business closed their doors for the duration of the half-hour service.

PNG Club holds meeting

The November meeting of the P.N.G.'s club was held at the home of Sis. Marion Heath with 22 members in attendance. Prior to the meeting Sis. Kathleen MacMullen was initiated into the club. The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer and the devotional was read by Sis. Marian Carter from the book of Psalms.

Two members were reported ill and in hospital. Plans were made for the annual Christmas Party to be held on Dec. 6 at the home of Sis. Mildred Morrow. The election of officers will also be held at the December meeting.

Sisters Isobel Good and Gladys Sine conducted an interesting program and a delicious lunch of pumpkin pie, whipped cream, tea and coffee was served by Sisters Marion Carter and Marian Heath. Thanks to the hostess and convenors was expressed by Sis. Lillian Johnson.

Men's Monday Night League

On Nov. 8, games bowled over 200 were: Howard Parsonson 238; Don McCrory 229, 219, 355, High Single 355; George Noble 262, 209; Nelson Vader 295; Ralph Seer 319, 311, High Triple 823 and High Average 230; Jean de Jonge 211; Doug Seer 209; Ken Johnson 218, 206; George Vanderkoo 221; Walter Vanderkoo 203; Murray McGinn 211; Ray Post 213, 215, 205; Barry Wilson 207; Bob Alderson 260; Tom Hudson 218, 240, 201; Ron McCrory 233; Jack Wilson 238, 264, 205; John Reichert 214; Bill Kelly 280; and Greg Dafeo 260, 254, 262.

The officers for the coming year are: Mrs. Burton Woodbeck, President; Mr. Jack Doran, Vice President; Mrs. Carl Boslak, Treasurer; Mrs. Jack Doran, Secretary; Mrs. Ted Barnard, Ladies Tournament Secretary. Mr. Ted Barnard, Men's Tournament Secretary.

Guides march

Twenty-one Stirling Girl Guides attended the Remembrance Day service, and marched in the parade along with the Scouts, Cubs and Veterans. This year music was provided by the C.F.B. Trenton Pipes and Drums.

Participants in Thursday's Remembrance Day service in Stirling came from various age groups. A local Wolf Cub takes his place along with veterans Oliver Stapley (left) and Clive White.

Reeve Robert Anderson approaches the cenotaph where he placed a memorial wreath during the Remembrance Day observance last Thursday morning. Legion officials said they were pleased at the large turnout of citizens for the service. News-Argus Photos.

The Pipe and Drum Band from CFB Trenton added to the solemnity of Stirling's Remembrance Day service at the cenotaph last Thursday morning.

Official plan under way Hastings planning area

An Official Plan is being prepared for the County of Hastings Planning Area. The planning area consists of all municipalities that form a part of the County of Hastings for municipal purposes, with the exception of the Villages of Frankford and Stirling and the Townships of Sidney and Thurlow.

The purpose of the Official Plan is to reflect the long-range desires of the people of the County and to incorporate these desires into land uses that will best serve the people without destroying the resource base of the area. The Official Plan is designed to help guide development in the County and to produce the greatest benefit to the largest number of people possible.

The Official Plan sets out the desired policy for development. A second document called a Restricted Area (Zoning) By-law will then be prepared for each municipality in order to implement the land use policies of the Official Plan. A restricted Area By-law is designed to protect present development and to ensure that incompatible uses do not occur in close proximity to or near one another. For example, with no restrictions on land uses, it is possible for a "Nuisance" industry such as a junk yard or gravel pit to be located adjacent to residential development. A zoning by-law will not eliminate junk yards or gravel pits, it will merely ensure that in the future, these different uses will not be located together to the detriment of all. A zoning by-law is therefore a form of protection for the home-owner against having an undesirable use next to his home, and protection for the gravel pit operator, for example, who can carry on his business without complaints.

The process of preparing an official plan and restricted area by-laws is a long one. Normally, the official plan is completed first. This involves a detailed examination into almost all aspects of an area, its physical features, its industries, farms, roads, water sources, land use, etc., are inventoried and the information analyzed. When satisfied that the planning area is "known", planning policy is established based on good planning practices, the information gathered, and most important, on the desires of the people living in the area.

After completion of the policies of an official plan, the implementing document, the restricted area by-law can be presented. The townships in the Hastings County Planning Area have the option of waiting until the completion of the Official Plan before getting their restricted area by-law, or, the meantime, having a temporary "interim" by-law based on existing land use only. This interim by-law restricts use to whatever is existing and application must be made to Council for any changes of land use zones. This interim by-law will be amended, as required, to conform to the Official Plan when it is completed.

In the County of Hastings Planning Area, the consulting firm of Totten Sims Hubicki have been engaged to prepare the Official Plan and Restricted Area By-laws. At the present time, they are involved in gathering information and studying the County. One of the most important tools for "knowing" the area is the land use survey. The land use survey has been in progress since August of this year and will be continuing until at least the end of November.

Later on in the planning program, the people of Hastings County will be asked to get involved in the planning of their area. Their ideas will guide the formation of the Official Plan policies in order to ensure that the Hastings Planning Area will grow to the best advantage of its citizens.

Loyalist appointment

Herbert Young, president of Loyalist College, has announced the appointment of Laurie Cameron, B.A., to the position of Field Representative. Mr. Cameron pursued a career in sales in Kingston and district from 1957 to 1968. While in Kingston he was involved in various community and charitable projects. He served with the Kingston Church Athletic League and the Kingston Advertising and Sales Club.

Mr. Cameron entered Queen's University in 1968 and graduated in May 1971 with an Honors B.A. in Political Science and Sociology. During his final year at Queen's he served as Chief Constable, Alma Mater Society. As Field Representative for the Extension Division of Loyalist College, he will assist in the administration of courses held in Secondary Schools in this area as well as establish and maintain liaison with industry and other groups both within and outside the metropolitan Belleville. Trenton area and the area south of 7 Highway. Mr. Cameron who was born in Westport, is married and has two children.

GIRLS WIN - The Stirling Ken Sine Fuels Hockey Team blanked Wellington-Pictou combines 5-0 in a game at Pictou Sunday. Joan one and Susan Wright adding the other. The girls play their first home game here Saturday at 6:30 against Belleville.

AN HISTORIC NOTE - A piece of Stirling history faded into oblivion on Monday as the News-Argus scrapped its old flat-bed, hand fed newspaper press. The old press turned out its last newspaper method of printing. Since that time, it has been used sparingly for poster work, but mainly served as a table for storing finished printing jobs. Local contractor, Harry Cooke, had the task of the building piece by piece. Even the old handle used to roll the scrap heap. There just isn't any demand these days for such equipment. The News-Argus has purchased a much more compact vertical Miehle press which will perform the same printing functions as did the old press.

"Cheerful and healthy"

This cheerful-looking baby is Kenny, eight months old. He's Anglo-Saxon in descent and has blonde hair with blue eyes and fair skin.

Kenny is a healthy boy, always good-natured. He has a mild hearing loss and is soon to be fitted with a hearing aid. Even without it, he hears people talking to him and uses his own voice. Though nothing he says is recognizable yet, he chats and gurgles and squeals in appealing baby language.

He is crawling, so he enjoys exploring, but is happy just to sit and play with his toys or his own hands or watch anything moving. He loves children and is interested in animals.

Kenny is easy to look after because of his happy disposition, because he amiably eats everything offered to him and because he sleeps right through the night.

This lovable baby needs loving parents who can help him with his slight hearing loss and whose academic expectations will not be too demanding. To inquire about adopting Kenny, please write to Today's Child, Box 388, Station K, Toronto. For general adoption information, ask your Children's Aid Society.

A FORUM ABOUT MATURE WOMEN

by Margaret Brookfield
Have you a problem as a mature woman, or with one? For advice write Margaret Brookfield, Information Centre of the Mature Woman, 3 West 57th St., New York, N. Y. 10019.

Human Kindness
Dear Margaret Brookfield:
I'm a widow who was married for 46 years. I never thought my life would be like this. I know what loneliness is now and believe it's the worst disease imaginable. I have a daughter, my only child, whom I educated to the best of my ability. She has a master's degree and is a guidance psychologist. Although we live in the same town, I only go to her home when I'm invited. I work part-time and want nothing whatsoever from my daughter, only the milk of human kindness. I know I must be doing something wrong, because we're not very close. I cannot come up with the answer as to why I'm not a satisfactory mother. If you could tell me how to be a better one, I would be grateful.
H. B., Miami Beach, Fla.

Dear H. B.:
Perhaps you were counting too much on your daughter's help in dispelling your loneliness. You don't indicate if she has a family of her own, but she does have a job which makes certain demands on her time and her energies. Therefore, you should not construe—as a form of unkindness—her inability to be fully involved with you. Why not try a fresh approach? First, develop some other friendships and activities so you're not so lonely. Second, think about what you might do to make your daughter's life more pleasant, rather than what she might do for you. Your own life could be more pleasant as a result.

Back to Work
Dear Margaret Brookfield:
I'm 49 years old and my children are grown. After being a housewife for 28 years, it seems as though I don't fit in with the workaday world anymore. It's like being an adolescent all over again. But I do want to go back to work. How can I bridge this terrible gap?

C. R., Brattleboro, Vt.
If it's any consolation, you're not alone. Many mature women have trouble getting back into the swing of things. Because of this, our Information Centre has developed a reading list for women interested in returning to work or business. You can get a copy by sending a self-addressed envelope to the Information Centre on the Mature Woman, 3 West 57th Street, New York, N. Y. 10019. Other readers can also receive a copy, by doing the same.

STIRLING HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY

Rabbits sometimes destroy young trees, shrubs and other sooty plants by nibbling as far up the stems as they can reach above the snow. Small tree trunks can be protected against them for several months by swabbing with a mixture of cayenne pepper and lard or other fat, (one ounce to the pound). It is well to wear rubber gloves to protect the hands against pepper burn.

Montreal is still our largest city

OTTAWA -- Montreal remains both the largest city and the largest metropolitan area in Canada, according to preliminary 1971 population figures released this week by the Census Division of Statistics Canada.

In second place is the Census metropolitan area of Toronto which has moved to within 10,000 of Montreal's population. Metropolitan Vancouver joins the two older centres in the "lower-million" population category.

The fifth and last bulletin of a series covering some 4,700 cities, towns, villages, townships and other municipal units, showed metropolitan Montreal with a preliminary population of 2,720,413 -- an increase of six per cent since 1966. Toronto's metro population stood at 2,609,638, representing a growth of 16 per cent, and Vancouver's at 1,071,081, 15 per cent over the last census.

Other metropolitan areas in the top ten, with 1966-71 growth rates shown in brackets, are Ottawa-Hull, 596,176 (13%); Winnipeg, 534,685 (5%); Hamilton, 495,864 (10%); Edmonton, 490,811 (16%); Quebec, 476,232 (9%); Calgary, 400,154 (21%); and Niagara-St. Catharines, 301,108 (6%).

The preliminary figures indicate that growth rates have slowed down since 1966, due to lower birth rates and immigration. They also show that most of the growth has occurred in the fringe or suburban parts of the larger metropolitan centres, usually at the expense of "core" cities and smaller towns and rural communities.

For example, populations within the city limits of Montreal and Winnipeg actually declined between 1966 and 1971 and, had it not been for boundary changes in Halifax, Saint John and Quebec, these three cities would also have shown lower populations.

On the basis of actual city populations, as opposed to metropolitan areas, Edmonton becomes the third largest city in Canada because its growth took place almost wholly within newly enlarged city limits. The increases shown by Vancouver and most other major cities were concentrated in municipalities outside the city but within the metropolitan fringe.

However, city populations of Edmonton (434,000) and Vancouver (422,000) are considerably less than Toronto's population of slightly under 700,000, and all three are well below the figure of almost 1,200,000 for the city of Montreal.

In making population comparisons, it should be remembered that the preliminary figures of the 1971 Census do not include adjustments still to be made for persons enumerated at temporary locations, such as hotels, hospitals, etc., who will be added to the counts at their usual place of residence if they were not enumerated there. Final figures will be released early in 1972, and will include county, province and Canada totals.

The following table gives preliminary population counts for the 22 Metropolitan areas, as defined for the 1971 Census, together with 1966 populations for the identical areas.

St. John's ACW annual report

St. James CWL

3 THE STIRLING NEWS-ARGUS, Wednesday, November 17, 1971

After a summer recess, St. John's A.C.W. resumed their regular monthly meetings in September, 1970 and welcomed the new rector, Charles Staples and Mrs. Staples. Following his induction service on Sept. 27, the A.C.W. provided refreshments. On Oct. 4 the Junior Choir sang for the first time while wearing their new choir gowns made by members of the A.C.W.

Several members attended the Hastings Area Annual in Twoed.

The group assisted at the Hastings Manor Bazaar. On Nov. 13 a most successful bake sale and coffee party was held. Tickets were sold on a quilt made and donated by Mrs. Russell.

Members took part in the fellowship meeting at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church as well as attending a Deaconry meeting in Trenton.

In December calendars were sold and the nominating committee brought forth the following slate of officers for 1971: Ruth McCarty, president; Alta Carr, vice president; Edith Murray, secretary; Mary Wall, treasurer; Margaret Green, Altar Guild secretary; Doris McGee, affiliate secretary; Eileen Barnd, Lois Clarke, social convener; Vera Cooke, social service; Marlene Morgan, family life department; Edith Edwards, living message secretary.

January brought a busy round of catering. In spite of adverse weather in February, a successful Demonstration Night and annual Pancake Tea were held. Two quilts were done. Work was started on the kitchen renovations by the Men's Club and at the same time the A.C.W. arranged to have washrooms installed in the basement area.

In March, members participated in the World Day of Prayer at the Pentecostal Church. In April the A.C.W. were guests of St. Paul's U.C.W.

A cleaning bee was held following completion of the kitchen and washroom renovations. Six members attended the Diocesan Annual in Kingston and in May members participated in packing the Area bazaar as well as attending the visit of Bishop Clarke of Mooseonee, in Frankford.

In June arrangements were made to have the kneelers padded during the summer. The yearly total of meetings was 10 plus one executive meeting this fall.

The Family Life Department involves approximately 30 children. Birthday remembrances are sent to each child. The A.C.W. provided refreshments following their service and party in February. A pot luck dinner and Family night party were held in December.

The Altar Guild continues their service in care for the Altar Linens, flowers each fourth Wednesday of each month at Hastings Manor Canteen, and two attend the Manor's Auxiliary meetings. Residents of Hastings Manor having birthdays in July received cards from St. John's A.C.W.

The A.C.W. provides box lunches for the District Guild Training school held in our community. Our contributions to the Area bazaar was to the value of $145.00 plus $2.00 for expenses. Donations of used clothing were sent to St. Paul's Community cupboard.

The A.C.W. sends small gifts to children, 12 and under who are ill or in hospital. Visits are made regularly to the two local nursing homes.

Donations are made to the Memorial Window fund in memory of our deceased parishioner. Cards are sent to the sick, new babies, special anniversaries and sympathy cards.

One helper is supplied each Sunday to assist with the nursery class of the Sunday School. Seven A.C.W. members assisted with the C.A.R.S. canvass of the village. Assistance was given a needy family last Christmas, and we made it possible for a young person to attend Camp Hyanto. Mrs. J. Green is still promoting the sale of Pakistan Embroideries through the western area of the Diocese.

Financially, our Diocesan commitments have been made, also donations to Camp Hyanto and the Stirling Festival of Sacred Praise.

Our share of the basement renovations was paid, also the cost of having the kneelers padded. A substantial sum was turned over to the General Fund of St. John's.

On Tuesday, November 9, the Parish Council and the Catholic Women's League met for a pot luck supper in the parish hall in Frankford.

The Parish Council held a short session after which Mrs. Roy LaChapelle chaired the business meeting of the CWL.

A brief report was read on the regional meeting in Marmora on November 7, at which members were asked to support a drive for funds for the Diocesan Council.

A number of projects were discussed, including the formation of a youth group, Christmas treats are also being prepared for the young children of the parish.

In December there will be a Christmas party in place of the regular meeting with an exchange of gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Althouse of Peterborough were dinner guests on Sunday of Mrs. Charles Dunham and Mrs. Jack Dunham visited during the afternoon.

On Thursday evening, Nov. 11, ladies from Good Tidings Pentecostal Church met at the home of Mrs. Gary Beaumont for regular WMC meeting.

Mrs. Melville Donnan, president, opened the meeting reading a poem "A Day to Remember". Miss Marjorie Forbes led in prayer especially remembering the wives and mothers who had lost loved ones in the wars.

Mrs. Gary Beaumont led in singing favourite choruses accompanied by Mrs. Edward MacDonald on her accordion.

Favourite scripture verses concerning faithfulness were given by each member and explained.

Happy birthday was sung to Mrs. Ray Donnan.

The offering was received. Mrs. Edward MacDonald sang a solo "Nothing between my soul and the Saviour".

Devotions were conducted by Mrs. Lee Smith speaking how God remembers, Deut. 32:1, Remember all the was the Lord has led Thee.

A time of prayer followed with Mrs. Ken Flint, Mrs. Bill McKinnon, Mrs. Edward MacDonald, and Mrs. Melville Donnan.

A bulletin letter from Miss Rogers was read by Mrs. Melville Grills.

Discussion of business plans for Christmas packages and different needs was held.

Mrs. Melville Donnan closed the meeting.

On Tuesday night Keith Lake's high triple of 694 (consisting of 237, 235, 222) helped the first place Caprice take all seven points from the last place Young Latins.

The third place Beauty Queens gained some ground on the second place Rancheros by taking seven points from them. Ed Svoboda's high single of 282 helped, along with Lenora West's 623 triple (which included the women's high single of 226).

On Tuesday night, Nov. 9, the last place Young Latins came up with five of the seven points, against Ranchero. Lenora West, a new member of the team, bowled a solid 641 triple, for the winners. Ken Danford turned in scores of 221, 252 and 235 for a 708 triple in a losing cause.

On the other alleys first place Caprice maintained their fast pace by taking five from the Beauty Queens. Captain Emma Roe's personal high single of the year, 284, was overshadowed by Ruth Renout's 319 single in the third game. Ruth's triple of 721 was the high for the night. For the losers, Albert Wilhelm rolled 227 and 236 while compiling a triple of 615.

On Tuesday night Keith Lake's high triple of 694 (consisting of 237, 235, 222) helped the first place Caprice take all seven points from the last place Young Latins.

The third place Beauty Queens gained some ground on the second place Rancheros by taking seven points from them. Ed Svoboda's high single of 282 helped, along with Lenora West's 623 triple (which included the women's high single of 226).

On Tuesday night, Nov. 9, the last place Young Latins came up with five of the seven points, against Ranchero. Lenora West, a new member of the team, bowled a solid 641 triple, for the winners. Ken Danford turned in scores of 221, 252 and 235 for a 708 triple in a losing cause.

On the other alleys first place Caprice maintained their fast pace by taking five from the Beauty Queens. Captain Emma Roe's personal high single of the year, 284, was overshadowed by Ruth Renout's 319 single in the third game. Ruth's triple of 721 was the high for the night. For the losers, Albert Wilhelm rolled 227 and 236 while compiling a triple of 615.

War is a part of our history

by Lynn Jones

While the memories of Remembrance Day are past, but still fresh in the minds, it might be a good time to comment on one project the Royal Canadian Legion should put on its agenda - namely a concerted effort to have November 11 as a national holiday or at least a half holiday, rather than the present hodgepodge system.

We can see no real reason why the present system of bank, school and government employees should enjoy the benefits of a paid holiday, and the balance of commerce and industry be expected to arrange their work schedule to allow those who wish to attend the service, or hold a silent period at 11 p.m., if this is not feasible.

One question the fact that this is an important day, yet no government, past or present, has seen fit to make a general rule. Most other countries have a national day to honor their war dead, and yet Canada has not. We certainly have made our contribution to war efforts, considering our size in world powers, and this is something that should be recognized by setting aside a day for this.

Having such a holiday would make things a lot simpler for places find it a great inconvenience to suspend business operations for an hour to two hours, day. Were the service at the start or end of operations, it would be feasible, but the nature of the service is to have the two minutes' silence come at 11 p.m., so having the commemoration at any other time would hardly make sense.

There might be another facet of this service that would merit a little consideration as well, supposing there was a holiday policy set. That would be to arrange for services in large auditoriums as they were available, November 11, most years, is not the most pleasant day as far as weather is concerned. Whether more would attend the function were it held in a more suitable environment is not easily determined, but might at least be worth investigating.

Also in the same vein, there might be a little more public education on the matter of Remembrance Day. Today's school children are studying the two Great Wars as historical events, but beyond that, there are certainly men from these wars who might be able to make some personal contribution to a period or two just before Remembrance Day, so the ceremonies would be more meaningful to the participants.

Survivors of the First World War are rapidly becoming fewer and fewer, which is not difficult to understand when you consider this war has been over for 53 years, and any survivor must be 70 or more. There are many more who remember the events of World War Two, because of the books and historical movies made in connection with it. As well, of course, survivors are only men in their early fifties.

War is not a pleasant thing, and perhaps if a few of those who did encounter its effects first hand could have a small part in teaching this facet of our history to our present school children, it might mean a better understanding of Canada's past.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

The Editor,
The Stirling News-Argus,
Dear Sir:

You have asked for comments for the editorial column of the News-Argus.
My comment is regarding the eastern end of Rawdon Creek within the town.

The (downtown) section of the creek was cleaned up in the summer but the eastern section was ignored or perhaps forgotten.
The eastern end of the town could be made our prettiest entrance into Stirling with the creek along the highway. But the creek needs to be cleared of its cat-tails, if these continue uncontrolled, there will eventually be a swamp along our highway. Consider it as a works program for unemployed.
An Interested Citizen

by Rev. Charles Staples
St. John's Anglican Church

In the second letter which Paul the apostle wrote to the Christians at Corinth, he made this statement, "Such trust have we through Christ to God-worship that we are sufficient of ourselves, to think anything as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God." This claim of self-commendation is not written boastfully. Paul is not trying to sound smug. He is giving us a life principle. The quality of life is God given. The kind of persons we can become is more due to the generosity of God, than to our own accomplishments.

This important clue about life and about how we should live is easily forgotten or overlooked today. It is relatively easy for us to push God outside, and to think that life is governed by what I decide and what I choose to do. Freedom of choice, of course, is ours. It was given to us in creation. But the consequences of our choices were also part of our creation.

If we prefer deceit and prejudice to honesty and acceptance of others, then the quality of life will be obviously unpleasant, full of tension, and uncertainty. We will need to be on guard against others. It is difficult to believe that a rational person prefers this kind of living to the kind of life where there is goodwill, and an easy, relaxed understanding and acceptance among people.

But confidence about the future, and a sense of trust in life all will be found in your work. Increasingly families are experiencing more and more break ups. The ever changing pattern of all areas of life today makes it impossible to develop a strong certainty about anything.

More and more we need to be told that life doesn't have to be that way. If we only remember and begin to apply the life principle, which St. Paul taught those early Christians at Corinth, "Our sufficiency is of God; who has made us worthy to be members of the new covenant, not of the letter, but of the spirit." When we begin to live life according to this principle and exercise the Christian ministry that Jesus laid upon us, we will live with a sense of hope in the future because we will believe that He is in the future, calling us toward Him.

Do You Remember?

Rumours drifting out from the various hunting camps in northern Hastings County all report deer as being quite plentiful and quotas being rapidly filled. At Salmon Lake, the hunting rounds of the Rock Lake Hunt Club, Gordon Bailey, employee of the local Hydro Commission, is "tops" with two large bucks, weighing close to 200 lbs. each, to his credit.

Messrs. John Villetorte, Walter and Jimmy Wright and G. B. Bedford returned home Saturday from hunting in the Grindstone Lake area with their full quota, while Earl and Bob Luery and H. Armstrong and Cecil Baker, who hunted in the Bannockburn area, lacked one of a full tally. H. C. Bird, who was a member of a party in the Appleby district, also got his deer. Several of the local hunters are still enjoying the hunt and reports are that they are meeting with good success. The season in Hastings County closes next Tuesday.

day, Nov. 26th.

Rev. J. R. Holden, minister at the Spring Brook United Church for the past several years, has accepted a call to the Coldwater pastoral charge in the Toronto Conference, and will take over his new work on December 1st.

Misses Iris Bastedo and Ruth Richardson, of Stirling, have accepted positions with the Bell Telephone Company, at Belleville, and began their duties on Monday.

Mr. Murray Heath has been engaged as cheesemaker in the new Rylstone Cheese Factory for the 1947 season.

Stirling's grand old Elm tree, one of the village's oldest landmarks, is under the surgeon's knife this week with employees of the Canadian Shade Tree Service, Montreal, cutting all the dead wood out of its branches.

Evidently the flour making facilities of our Stirling Crown Roller Mills is making an extended reputation. Its proprietors yesterday received another large order from Quebec for flour.

The annual meeting of the Stirling branch of the Bible Society will be held on Friday evening, Nov. 20th, in the Presbyterian Church, Rev. Dr. Galbraith, agent of the Society, will deliver an address; and short addresses are also expected from the resident ministers.

The I.O.O.F. Hall in this village has just undergone a thorough renovation. The walls and ceiling have been kalsomined, and the woodwork painted, carpet cleaned, and everything put in first class order, making it very attractive and neat. Mr. G. L. Scott had the contract for the work, and has done it well.

At the after-dinner program in the Presbyterian Church on Monday evening the 23rd, Miss Jessie Robertson, elocutionist, will give these pleasing and stirring recitations: "Joe, the Geologist," "The Ride of Jennie McNeil," "Patie Pirnie's Wooln." You should not fail to hear these, as it will be a treat you may never have again.

THE STIRLING SNOWDRIFTERS SNOWMOBILE CLUB

Canada works

when we work together.

The Federal Government is putting 498 million dollars to work, through a series of specific programs, to help create jobs for Canadians. This message is designed to give you program details.

WORKING TOGETHER WITH THE INDIVIDUAL

We're encouraging you to act on your own initiative or through local government, local organizations and service groups to come up with ideas for our Local Initiatives Program. For example, you may wish to develop a day care centre in your town or any number of services that will make your community a better place.

There's also a Training-on-the-Job Program that will work through business and industry to expand opportunities for those who are unemployed or have little work experience.

If you have some basic experience, we've extended the Canada Manpower Training Program to help provide you with additional learning.

WORKING TOGETHER WITH BUSINESS AND INDUSTRY

There's a program of tax incentives or direct payments to employers to encourage them to add trainees to their staffs through the Training-on-the-Job Program. This will help the trainee get work experience that he can use in many jobs.

WORKING TOGETHER WITH THE MUNICIPALITIES

The foundation of all municipal activity is the previously mentioned Local Initiatives Program. This will help you support and spur community projects that will give jobs to people in your community who find themselves unemployed.

WORKING TOGETHER WITH THE PROVINCES

Obviously, the municipal Local Initiatives Program will tie in closely with the Provinces.

So will our Special Development Loans Program that will finance new capital works projects. We'll be speeding up mortgage approvals through the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation to get homes, student housing and sewage treatment projects under way.

We also will be making loans to exhibition commissions, boards and associations to get you working on multi-purpose fair and trade buildings.

WORKING TOGETHER WITH FEDERAL WORKS

On our level, we'll be working to give you more job opportunities on maintenance and improvement activities on Federal buildings; transportation facilities; forest and park projects; and many others.

WHERE IT ALL WORKS TOGETHER

The job starts at your Canada Manpower Centre. For advice and assistance on any of the programs that you feel apply to you or your community, contact your local Canada Manpower Centre. They'll be happy to help you with all the information they have. When Canadians get involved together, Canada works.

The Friday Night League met for its 8th night of the season with the Misfits taking 5 points from the Wreckers, giving the Misfits a total of 20 and Wreckers a total of 31 points. The Lucky Strikers took 7 points from the Ringers, giving them a total of 30 points and the Ringers 22. The High Triple, Single, and Average for Ladies 'A' Group were taken by Verna Woodcock with scores of 680 for triple, 251 for single and 228 for average.

For the men John Reichardt had High Triple of 735 and High Single of 310 and Smokey Faulkner 211; Ralph Rieley 213; Della Reichardt 214; John Reichardt 211 and 214.

On Nov. 12 the Friday Night League met for its 8th night of bowling. The teams shifted positions. The Ringers took 5 points from the Wreckers for a total of 27 points. The Wreckers gained 2 points for a total of 33. The Lucky Strikers took first place from the Wreckers by taking all 7 points from the Misfits for a total of 29 points.

The high triple for the ladies was taken by Irene Lippert with a total of 724 and high single of 249. Verna Woodcock still has high average of 221.

For the men Ralph Park had a high single of 310 and Ralph Scea had a triple of 710 and high average of 215.

In 'B' Group Gloria Carr had a high triple of 506 and a high single of 198. Betty Faulkner has a high average of 155.

Other good games that night were Peter Lippert 243; Irene Lippert 243, 232 and 249; Robert Sararas 213; Hilda Rose 204; Ralph Park 310; Ralph Scea 206, 305; Harold Morgan 213 and 224; Jessie Rieley 210; Ted Meades 210; Verna Woodcock 213; Smokey Faulkner 226 and 225; Ralph Rieley 256 and 223; John Reichardt 215; Doug Scea 240 and 243; Rosa Spry 221 and 211; and Don Carr 240.

WILL HOLD BANQUET

The annual banquet of the Hastings County Federation of Agriculture will be held on Saturday night at the Huntingdon Township Hall, Ivanhoe.

Guest speaker for the occasion will be Grant Ketcheson of Madoc, who will speak on his trip to Great Britain earlier this year, on the Nuffield Scholarship.

Young Adult Bowling League

The Heads lost 2 out of 3 games to the Feds, for a score of 2 to 5, with the Feds getting an extra point for total pinfall. Meanwhile the Payote Kids took a score of 7 points by taking all three games and 1 point for total pinfall leaving the Serans with nothing.

Total points to date:

Scrans	20
Feds	26

St. Andrew's group meets

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church Women met at the church on Nov. 11 with 17 in attendance.

Mrs. J. Johnston introduced the proceedings with Scripture verses, Deut. 8:18; Psalm 20:7. The hymn, God of our Father's was sung with Mrs. G. Matthews as musician.

Mrs. D. Fargey read Romans 5:1-11 and gave the meditation emphasizing the price paid by Christ and that paid by soldiers who died in war, both for us.

Mrs. R. Eggleton offered prayer. The offering was gathered by Mrs. S. Boyce and dedicated by Mrs. Johnston.

The hymn, Rise up men of God concluded the worship service. The roll call was a Bible verse containing the word 'Remember.'

The minutes and correspondence were read by the secretary, Mrs. Ken Tompkins.

Donations were made to the CNIB and the Board of Managers. The ladies were requested to keep used stamps coming.

Mrs. K. Tompkins rendered a solo, Peace in the Valley.

Mrs. J. Johnston introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. George Williamson of Trenton, President of Kingston Presbyterian W.M.S.

Mrs. Williamson read a poem entitled, Will I Pray? and offered prayer. Mrs. Williamson explained many things in connection with W.M.S. work. She suggested we keep strong interest in Missions, whether here or abroad. She explained the different divisions of W.M.S. from over-all Council to the Auxiliaries.

Mrs. Ken Ray expressed thanks to Mrs. Williamson and presented her with a gift.

Mrs. Johnston read a poem, Give Yourself a Little Time, then pronounced the Benediction.

Stirling Teen League Bowling

MARSH WORLD by ANGUS SHORT Ducks Unlimited

LIVESTOCK AND DUCKS

On the short-grass country of southern Alberta some of the best duck-producing areas in Canada are found. Given water, these areas are prime nesting habitat for pintail, mallard, widgeon and teal. The Eastern Irrigation District established a canal irrigation system in the area for agriculture. Through co-operation of the E.I.D. Ducks Unlimited draws on surplus water from the canals to supply about 100 projects in the area. These in turn are of direct benefit to more than one million head of cattle.

Hagerman - Haggerty

St. John's Anglican Church, Stirling was the setting for the October 23 wedding of Linda Dianne Haggerty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Haggerty, and of Russell John Hagerman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Hagerman.

Rev. Charles Staples was the officiating clergyman while Mrs. Gail Faulkner, organist and Norman Middleton, soloist, provided music for the occasion.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of crystal peau with an empire waistline and a wedding band collar with a lace frill. The bodice featured a square Venice lace yoke. The long full sleeves were gathered at the wrist and edged with a wide Venice lace frill. The full skirt was bordered at the hem with two wide Venice lace fills while a band and bow with streamers accented the waistline. A cathedral length veil of pure silk illusion was held by a headpiece of wired Gimp lace oak leaves trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of red sweet-heart roses and white carnations entwined with ivy.

The maid of honor, Miss Holly Goodison, wore a floor length gown of pure silk with a silk velvet bodice. The bodice and sleeves were of royal blue velvet and the full skirt was of hand painted pure silk with flowers of royal blue and burgundy on a champagne background. A large emerald green band with a bow at the centre front accented the waistline.

The bridesmaids, Diane Reid and Ruth Hagerman, sister of the groom, were dressed identically to the maid of honor. Each girl carried a bouquet of white 'mums and red roses.

The best man was Leslie Pyear while Grant Hagerman, the bridegroom's brother and Grant Reid the bride's uncle were the ushers.

Mark Hagerman, the bridegroom's nephew, was ring bearer. The reception was held at the Madrid Room Sun Valley Motor Inn, Belleville. Greeting guests was the bride's mother in a floor length hot-pant ensemble.

Assisting her was the bridegroom's mother in a street length dress of deep purple crimplene. Both mothers wore corsages of cymbidium orchids. South the bride donned a chocolate brown hot-pant outfit with dark brown accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations and bronze pom-pom 'mums.

Upon return the couple will reside at R.R. 1, Stirling.

Dollars and Good Sense

by William J. Martin
Most of us are credit card users today. What was once thought of as a tool of the wealthy is now available to almost anyone; from gasoline cards to the new bank credit cards, our wallets are fatter now than when we used cash.

With all those cards, many people live in dire fear of what would happen if their cards are lost or stolen. The bills that could accumulate would be staggering.

In the U.S., credit card holders in the know aren't worried any more. A law passed by Congress earlier this year limits liability to $50. But, it probably won't cost that much; in fact, it probably won't cost anything if your cards are lost or stolen. If the company issuing the credit card hasn't told you about that new law, and provided you with a postage paid, pre-addressed form for you to use to inform them of your loss, you're off the hook.

Although there are some other provisions of the law, this is the one which applies to most U.S. credit card holders because very few of the issuing companies have bothered to notify their customers.

Some of the firms feel that if you aren't aware of the provision, you'll be much more prompt in notifying them and they are not planning to comply with this provision at all. Others are just now beginning to make their plans to notify customers.

The same law says that unsolicited cards that have never been signed or used are exempt from liability of the card customer. Cards that don't provide some means of identification also are exempt from any liability.

So, rest easier tonight knowing that if your credit card should be lost or stolen, at least you probably won't have to pay for the fraudulent charges that might be made.

WEEKLY REPORT

FROM FOXBORO DISTRICT

SALT NEEDS OF BEEF CATTLE
Salt supplies sodium and chlorine. It is needed regularly since there is very little storage in the body. Lack of salt causes loss of appetite, decreased growth, an unthrifty appearance, decreased milk production and weight loss. Animals that are deficient in salt will chew and lick various objects. They become restless and will travel great distances in search of salt. Cattle have consumed as high as 2.2 pounds of salt without any deleterious effect on production.

Announcement

Ivanhoe Women's Institute

The November meeting of the Ivanhoe Institute was held in the Ivanhoe Hall in the evening with a good attendance.

Mrs. Dan Cooke, president, opened the meeting with a poem and the Institute Ode and Mary Stewart Collect.

Roll call was answered and the minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and business was conducted.

Mrs. Cooke read a poem and observed a minute of silence in memory of a departed member, Mrs. Jessie French. The president turned the rest of the meeting over to Mrs. John Wallace.

She opened with the singing of O Canada and several songs in the Institute song books.

Evelyn Pollock gave the current events and Mrs. Millar introduced the guest speakers, Miss Thompson and Mrs. Sine who attended the ACWW Convention in Norway and showed several slides of their trip which were very interesting.

Mrs. Currie thanked the ladies for their pictures and presented them with a gift. The collection was taken and Mrs. Dan Cooke also thanked the ladies for their fine pictures and closed the meeting with the Institute grace.

A lunch was served by the hostesses and a social half hour followed.

THROWN FROM HORSE - Laurie Glover, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Glover, R.R. 3 Frankford, was taken to Kingston General Hospital last Thursday afternoon after falling from her horse in Stirling. Laurie and two other girls were riding their horses along Church St. when Laurie pulled on one rein to stop her horse. The animal's head jerked to one side and it fell, after losing its footing. Laurie was taken to Belleville General Hospital by ambulance and later transferred to Kingston.

CHAMBER MEETING - Victor Godin, a special representative from the Canadian Chamber of Commerce, met informally with some of the directors of the Stirling Chamber last week, Arthur Loucks, president of the Chamber, said the purpose of the meeting was to discuss various Chamber activities.

MINISTER ILL - Laymen have taken over the pulpit at St. Andrew's Presbyterian Churches here and at West Huntingdon due to the illness of the minister, Rev. Roy A. Taylor. Mr. Taylor took ill a week ago Sunday and has been undergoing tests at Belleville General Hospital ever since. Last Sunday, Arthur Duncan conducted the services, assisted by Ken Tompkins. This week, Lynn Jones will conduct both services. Mrs. Taylor said Tuesday that her husband has been ordered to take a complete rest until after Christmas.

LET US KNOW - The News-Argus would appreciate being notified about Christmas programs which will be taking place through the next few weeks. We hope to be able to take pictures at several of these events. So please let us know well in advance what your group is planning. If we can't make it, be sure to send us a write-up in any event. Your friends would like to hear about it.

Stirling Rotarians plan campaign

Community service clubs who provide assistance to crippled children and conduct Easter Seal Campaigns in the Hastings, Lennox and Addington, held a district meeting in Belleville on Thursday, November 18.

At the meeting, called by the Ontario Society for Crippled Children, service club representatives met with Society personnel to discuss plans and preparations for the 1972 Easter Seal Campaign, scheduled for March 2 to April 2.

Also discussed were plans and preparations for observing the Society's 50th Anniversary next year. Club men and Society personnel got together to explore ways and means of marking 50 years of service in which many thousands of handicapped Ontario youngsters have been aided. It is interesting to note that the Society started out in 1922 with 10 clubs looking after 76 children. Today, 230 affiliated clubs are now looking after 14,500 children each year.

Service club representatives reported on local crippled children programs. The Chairman of the meeting was Mr. R. Wartman, and the Service Clubs represented were: Bancroft Lions, Belleville Rotary, Madoc Kiwanis, Napanee Rotary, Pictou Rotary, Stirling Rotary and Trenton Rotary.

Representatives from Stirling were Elwood Bateman, Dwight Dillabough and Edward Klomp-

Conservation Authority receives grant

George A. Kerr, Minister of the Environment and Clarke T. Rollins, M.L.A. for Hastings have announced the approval of a provincial grant of $5,575.00 to the Lower Trent Region Conservation Authority for acquisition of the Sager Oak Hills Conservation Area.

The Authority is proposing to acquire 48 acres of land in the Township of Sidney. Approximately 20 acres located in the lower portion but well above the level of the Trent River has a good cover of pine and oak and would make an ideal location for picnic facilities. The remaining 28 acres is fairly clear pasture land.

All member municipalities will bear the Authority's share of the cost.

Argus using new addressing system

With the mailing of last week's edition of the Stirling News-Argus, a new mailing system made its debut. Principal change is the use of the familiar yellow label, the name and address are now imprinted with a stencil machine. This greatly facilitates the mailing, and the names are easier to read.

At the same time, it was necessary to establish an expiry date for all subscriptions. In order to set up records, each stencil shows such a date, and the News-Argus has set the 1st of the month as the expiry, unless another date is shown. This means that all subscriptions are due for renewal in the month shown.

Along with this new mailing routine, a monthly notification system has been started. Subscribers will not receive a notice until the early part of the month following expiry. For example, a subscription expiring November 1, will not be billed until early December. This gives the subscriber a whole month to renew, and will allow for the adjustment of all subscriptions, which may have started other than in the first week.

There are a number of papers being mailed, bearing expiry dates three, four or more months old. It should be noted the post office may refuse to deliver any paper more than three months behind, and your co-operation in bringing the renewals up-to-date would be appreciated.

Scholarship winner addresses FOA banquet

One of the most successful annual banquets held to date by the Hastings County Federation of Agriculture took place Saturday night, Nov. 20, at the Huntingdon Township Hall, Ivanhoe, when a capacity crowd enjoyed a turkey dinner with all the trimmings served by the members of the Ivanhoe Women's Institute.

President, Donald Sills, welcomed the guests and proposed the toast to the Queen. Grace was said by George Carlisle, a past president of the federation. Mrs. Douglas Sills was pianist for the evening.

Head table and special guests were introduced by Alex McCurdy, first vice-president. Entertainment was supplied by the Couch Musical Group composed of Harvey and Ken Couch and Don Campbell.

Mr. Sills, in his address, reviewed the past year's activities: a pot luck supper for the annual meeting, a picnic at O'Hara's Mill and the Banquet. Some excellent speakers were heard - Phil Flagler, 50 years of radio and broadcasting; Clarence Bird, assessment and taxation; Les Armstrong, cost of farm inputs;

Stewart Cooke, income tax and farm accounts.

Resolutions were sent to O.F.A. for presentation to the government, on such matters as snowmobiles, interest rates on government loans and loss of milk subsidy quota, to name a few.

A welcome to Huntingdon Township Hall was extended by Reeve Russell Sills, Lee Grills M.P. for Hastings, brought greetings from Ottawa and congratulated the president and his executive on the stand they were taking on certain current agricultural issues.

Dianne Gunning said how happy she was to return to the home banquet, in her role as 1971-72 Canadian Dairy Princess. Susan Ray, Hastings County Dairy Princess, brought greetings from the county milk committee and gave a few highlights from the National 4-H convention which she attended recently.

Thanks were extended to the ladies by Glenn Bush and replied to by Mrs. Dan Cooke.

A lucky draw was made for prizes donated by the C.I.A.G. Insurance office, Belleville. The tickets were drawn and prizes presented by the Dairy Princesses to George Wood and Mrs. Wallace McInroy.

Wilfred Forestell introduced the guest speaker, Grant Ketcheson. Hastings County has had an unique experience this year in which the people, especially those in the agricultural world are very proud. Not only did one of its young ladies attain the coveted title of Canadian Dairy Princess but also one of its young farmers was chosen to receive a Nutfield Scholarship, which gave him a five month's expenses paid stay in Britain.

They are Dianne Gunning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Gunning, Tweed and Grant Ketcheson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aileen Ketcheson. Madoc, Mr. Ken Ketcheson gave his audience a wonderful description verbally and with the use of colored slides of his trip and the privileges this scholarship offered.

He left in February and returned in August. Two young men from New Zealand, one from Australia and one each from eastern and western Canada made up the group.

Senior Citizen mix-up

It seemed like a mixed up day at Senior Citizens last Thursday. Forty-four of us played progressive euchre and the hands dealt were a mixed up mess. John Kane (one of our better players) got such a mess of cards that he said, "Well that sure is hard on my religion." Myrtle Tanner and Nellie Montgomery got all mixed up in giving out the prizes. Disole Scribe got so confused that he isn't sure yet who was who. Kate Donohoe who in every way acted like a lady and was dressed as one, claimed that she was a man and I believe got a prize too.

Other winners I think were Dorothy Summers, Freda Broadworth and Murn Stapley.

President Fred Heasman, who is very handy with the needle got so confused that he came wearing a top coat with one button sewed on the wrong side. His brother, George, who had gone hairless for years, grew a new crop and had his first hair cut last week. His barber, Berne Farrell, rewarded him for being a good boy with some bubble gum that he keeps on hand for the kids.

Ross Hoard said, "Well I can do something unusual too. I can dive into a lake and not get a hair wet."

Lloyd Dufoe was thanked for the playing cards he donated. We had one visitor, Mrs. John Ryan. The lunch kids were Myrtle Tanner, Kate Donohoe, Nellie Montgomery and Ada Bush. Thanks girls.

"During Safe Driving Week traffic deaths are reduced in comparison to the weeks preceding and following it. But too many people are still being killed and injured," he said. "Despite recent improvements, 100 Canadians still die and more than 3,000 are injured in 10,000 accidents each week."

do much to improve vehicle engineering and highway design safety, the well-being of citizens who travel the nation's highways is most dependent on driver attitudes and skills.

Safe Driving Week, Canada's longest-running national safety campaign, is being held from December 1-7. It is supported by all levels of government, business, industry and organizations concerned with safety.

Governor General, Roland Michener, Honorary Patron of the Canada Safety Council, endorses the campaign and contributes by signing certificates for cities with a population of 40,000 or more which go through Safe Driving Week without a fatality.

Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau issued a message saying the campaign deserves the support of all Canadians.

Finch - Stewart

Grace Chapel, Stirling, was the setting for the October 9th wedding when Maureen Bernice Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Stewart, R. R. 2, Campbellford, became the bride of Morley Ralph Finch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Finch, R. R. 4, Marmora.

The double-ringed ceremony was performed by Garry Robinson of Bancroft. Wedding music was provided by Miss Carolyn Merrick. Miss Vickie Hay, soloist, sang the "Wedding Prayer" before the ceremony and "Bless These Two" during the signing of the register.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white peau-de-soie, with an overlay of velvet-flocked nylon. Her empire-styled dress, featured a jewel-neckline and sheer lantern sleeves. A band of peau-de-soie detailed the sleeves and the empire waistline and caught a detachable chapel train in the back, also of peau-de-soie.

The bride's headpiece, which gave a crown effect, was high-lighted with crystal sequins. It held in place a long nylon veil with a short layer which featured a scalloped edge.

She carried a cascade of rosy red carnations interwoven with green trailing ivy.

The maid of honor, Mrs. Gary Torrance, sister of the bride, was attired in a long peasant-styled gown of caudron rose polyester moss crepe. The dress had a shallow scoop neckline, finished with a flounce and the A-line skirt featured deep ruffles. The short puffy sleeves were gathered onto a wide band. A narrow rose velvet ribbon detailed the empire-waistline and formed a bow at the back.

She wore a cluster of caudron rose chiffon flowers in her hair. She carried a nosegay of mint green baby 'tums and pink carnations with mint green streamers.

Bridesmaids, Miss Betty Barnum, Kingston, cousin of the bride; Miss Connie Tucker, Toronto, and Miss Lynn Spencer, Peterborough, were attired identically to the maid of honor.

The two flower girls, Tammy and Tracy Finch, nieces of the groom, wore long dresses, styled in the same manner as the bridesmaids, but in the white velvet-flocked nylon, to correspond with the bride. A rose velvet ribbon accented the empire-waistline and formed a bow at the back also. Both wore a cluster of tiny caudron rosebuds in their hair.

They carried small nosegays similar to the bridesmaids. The bridegroom was attended by Gary Torrance, brother-in-law, Ushers were Lyle and Ross Finch, brothers of the groom and Bill Barnum, cousin of the bride. Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Riviera Inn, Campbellford.

Greeting the guests was the bride's mother in a moss green coat and dress ensemble, with silver accessories. She wore a corsage of yellow carnations with silver bow. Assisting her was the groom's mother in a long-sleeved turquoise-blue dress, gold accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations with gold bow.

For the wedding trip to Niagara and points North, the bride wore a two-piece mauve ensemble of polyester crepe, consisting of a long sleeved move figured dress, topped with a solid mauve long vest, black patent shoes and purse as accessories. Her corsage was of pink sweet-heart roses.

Prior to her marriage, the bride was honored at miscellaneous showers given by Mrs. Gerald Barnum and Betty; Miss Lynn and Sue Spencer at Mrs. Robert Spencers and Miss Lois Reid and Karen Andres at Mrs. Robert Andrews.

MARSH MARAUDER

The striped skunk. This wide ranging animal is found commonly in both prairie and woodland habitat. It is an omnivorous feeder and a predator to be reckoned with in waterfowl nesting areas. It roams the uplands where dry-land nesting ducks are found and will not hesitate to enter the wet borders of marshes and even swim out to islands in search of duck eggs. Length about two feet, including tail and weight 6 to 10 pounds.

Stirling youth receives award

TORONTO - An 18-year-old Stirling youth has been awarded $8,034 for shotgun injuries he sustained two years ago which cost him his lower left leg. The Ontario Law Enforcement Compensation Board has awarded the youth, Steven Hoyt, $7,500 in a lump sum for the pain and suffering and $534 for legal and travelling expenses.

On Dec. 30, 1969 he was hunting rabbits on a farm with two friends when a shotgun carried by Michael Coughlin, then 15, discharged as both climbed a snow-covered hill.

Although a charge of careless hunting under the Fish and Game Act was finally dismissed in July, 1970, the board decided Coughlin could have been charged under the Criminal Code of Canada on the dangerous handling of arms and ammunition.

This allowed the two members of the board who heard the evidence, A. R. Willmott and R. P. Milligan, to grant compensation for a "crime."

They noted Hoyt was in Grade 10 and lost two years of school plus the suffering of the loss of the leg, skin grafts and pain from an artificial limb.

WMS marks anniversary

On Sunday evening, November 14, the 70th anniversary of the Women's Missionary Society of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, West Huntingdon, was observed when a large number of church members and visitors gathered at the church.

The guests were welcomed by Mrs. R. A. Taylor and Mrs. Harry Thompson. Mrs. John Wallace and Mrs. K. Turnman were in charge of the guest book. The meeting was called to order at 8 o'clock by the president, Mrs. Harold Thompson and all took part in singing several old songs accompanied by Mrs. Lindsay Sills.

The "Quintones" from Madoc accompanied by Miss Lamorne West, sang several numbers which were greatly enjoyed by all.

The devotional service was prepared by Mrs. John Craig of Belleville, but she was unable to be present and Mrs. A. L. Sutherland took charge. Mrs. William Donnan sang the Anniversary Prayer, composed by Miss Louise Reith for the centennial anniversary of the Women's Missionary Society in Montreal in 1965.

Mrs. Barton Haggerty conducted an "In Memoriam" service for departed members and a plant was on the communion table in their memory. Those unable to attend the meeting were

Rev. R. A. Taylor, who was in hospital and Miss Bessie Fleming, who began plans last spring for this anniversary.

The president introduced Mrs. George Williamson of Trenton. She has been active in church activities and is a past president of St. Andrew's W.M.S. of Trenton and was also Sunday School superintendent for some time.

She is at present the president of the W.M.S. of Kingston Presbyterian. She gave an interesting message on missionary work, both here and overseas.

Mrs. Harry Benson thanked the guest speaker and the Quintones and all who had taken part in the evening's program.

Mrs. James Wallace gave a history of the W.M.S. since it was organized in 1901. The offering was gathered by Mrs. D. Fargey, Mrs. J. Wallace, Mrs. K. Turnman and Mrs. L. Adams and dedicated by Mrs. A. L. Sutherland.

Hymn 388 - Sow the Seed. Besides all Water, was sung and the benediction closed the meeting.

Lunch was served in the basement. Miss Sara Wallace, the oldest living member of our W.M.S., and an honorary life member had the honor of cutting the cake.

Graduation

MARSH WORLD

MARSH CLOWN

The coot or mudhen, with small black head, white chicken-like bill and big clumsy looking feet, is called the "marsh clown". A poor flier, it runs over water flapping frantically, staggers into the air and more often than not flops back into the water. Its toes are lobed, suited to walking among reeds and tangled marsh vegetation. Well built nest, sometimes floats, 8 to 15 speckled eggs are laid.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

November 19, 1971

Dear Sir:

Substantial reductions in automobile insurance are available to graduates of high school driver education courses. But not all young people get the chance to take driver-ed at school. They, and their parents, will be glad to know that the Canadian Underwriters Association is encouraging the development of out-of-school courses which qualify for the same discounts.

CUA authorized the Ontario Safety League to certify courses that meet the high standard required - a total of 25 hours of classroom instruction from a school teacher with special qualifications in driver-ed, plus a minimum of 6 hours individual in-car instruction.

Such courses are already in operation in Brantford, Guelph, Hamilton, Mississauga, Ottawa, Sault Ste. Marie, St. Catharines,

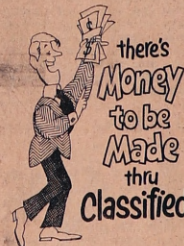

Woman bags large doe

Toronto. It is hoped that courses in four other locations will start up shortly.

Particulars of the driving schools offering these approved courses will be supplied on request by the Ontario Safety League, 409 King St. W., Toronto; phone 362-1516.

The cost of these special courses is rapidly recouped through lessened premiums. But the main value lies in the significant reduction in accident expectancy.

Yours truly,
Fred H. Ellis

Downtown lighting is appreciated

We think the merchants of Stirling deserve commendation for sprucing up the downtown district for the holiday season. Out of town shoppers have been heard to comment on the fine lighting display along Front and Mill Sts., and we are certain the efforts also are appreciated by local residents. Individual store decorations add to the atmosphere at this season of the year.

It is gratifying to see that local businessmen are willing to do their best to keep Stirling's shopping district attractive. While some other small communities have seen their business district diminish in the last few years Stirling merchants continue to be aggressive, in the face of tough competition from larger municipalities.

There are, quite naturally, some consumer needs that Stirling does not fulfil. And so there will always be a certain amount of out of town shopping.

However, as long as local merchants are willing to put forth the effort, there is every reason to be optimistic about the future. No substitute will ever be found for friendly and personal service.

Support your hometown merchants as you go about your Christmas shopping, and make Stirling a better place in which to live.

Movies have deteriorated

BY ROY LEWIS

The helpless damsel was carried off by the black hearted villan and then, in rushed the gallant hero, against impossible odds, and rescued her. Afterward they both rode off into the sunset and lived happily ever after.

This theme was used by Hollywood producers for many years.
I say was, because the motion picture industry has gone through a revolution and, unfortunately, the outcome has heralded the slow deterioration of a 50 year old industry.

Motion pictures have affected most of our lives in one way or another. We may associate ourselves with the actors and the roles they are playing. Or we may watch movies for sheer enjoyment and entertainment. Whatever the reason, they are very much a part of our society. Even if you do not attend a theatre, movies are brought into your home by a modern day device called television.

Television, in my opinion, is the direct cause of the deterioration in quality of films. Before television, the movie was the prime entertainment medium for millions of people. For a small admission charge, and a dime for hot buttered popcorn, one could enter a world of make believe for two or three hours and forget one's own troubles and problems.

Television made movie watching far more convenient. For now a family could relax in the privacy of home rather than make a trip to the local theatre.

When producers saw that box office receipts were dwindling, they decided to introduce sensationalism to the screen to try and attract more people to the theatres.

In doing this, however, they lost the connection of excellent camera work, outstanding acting and genuine real-life plots, that were characteristic in the older movies.

Television has observed a strict code of ethics and has presented only high quality films which do not have to rely on sensationalism to attract the viewer.

An excellent film was present on television a couple of weeks ago. The film, entitled "The Longest Day" and produced by Darrell F. Zanuck, showed the events prior to, and the attack by allied forces on the beaches of Normandy, June 6, 1944. For those who had never seen war, this film presented a graphic account, far more vivid than could be outlined by any veteran.

The last film I saw at a theatre and found enjoyable was David Lean's production of Doctor Zhivago. This movie traces the life of a doctor who, not through his own choosing, is swept up in the violence during the Bolshevik revolution in 1917 and the take.

Fog was settling down at the time and Knapman was following the car ahead quite closely. Suddenly the deer emerged and, terrified by the sight of the cars, gave a frightened leap clearing the first car by inches to spare. It disappeared in the woods on the opposite side of the highway. Both cars stopped but there was no

New Quick Method For Fabulous Gels

There's a great new quick way to make beautiful clear gels with real fruit flavors, using any fruit juice, or fruit punch concentrate in the frozen state, except pineapple. An envelope of unflavored gelatin is the key to turning out these short cut, delightful gels that will be ready to eat in 30 to 45 minutes. The variety is yours to choose in flavors that please your family best.

Quick Concentrate Gels

- 1 envelope Knox Unflavored Gelatine
 - 1 can (6 ounces) frozen juice or punch concentrate, kept frozen*
 - 1/2 cup cold water
 - 3/4 cup sugar
 1. Sprinkle gelatin over cold water in medium saucepan. Place over low heat; stir constantly until gelatin dissolves (until there are no visible granules), about 3 minutes. Remove from heat.
 2. Stir in sugar.
 3. Add frozen concentrate and stir until melted. Stir in ice water.
 4. Pour into individual dishes or 2-cup mold or bowl. Chill until set.
- Makes: 4 servings.
- *FROZEN JUICES: Choose from orange juice concentrate, orange-grapefruit, tangerine, grape or apple juice concentrate, or fruit punches. Do not use frozen pineapple juice or punches containing pineapple juice.

TELEPHONE OFFICE AT STIRLING - 1928

Stirling Staff at work - 1928, Misses B. Belshaw and R. Eggleston and Mrs. A. Bailey, manager.

Telephones date back to 1890s

Gaslight, high buttoned shoes and a horse and rig were considered the latest innovations in modern living when residents of Stirling began talking to their neighbours over Alexander Graham Bell's young invention back in the early 1890's.

According to records in Bell Canada's historical files, the first company to equip homes and offices of Stirling with phones was the North American Telegraph Company, Incorporated in 1886 by the Rathbun interests of Deseronto, this company served a large number of exchanges in eastern Ontario from Pakenham to Peterborough.

The late Joseph H. Hoppes, who was for many years manager of the North American Telegraph Company at Kingston, recalled the pioneer telephone days in this part of the country. On Sunday evenings, operators in Belleville and Kingston would entertain their fellow workers in other communities on the long distance lines by playing the guitar and banjo and quite often would join in singing such rousing tunes as "Sweet Adeline" and "Wait Till the Sun Shines Nellie" until a subscriber would cut in to make a call. But as long distance traffic increased, these Sunday night serenades came to an end.

Weather conditions played a vital part in the success or failure of long distance calling when the phone was still young. Under ideal conditions, a local phone user could talk to Toronto or Montreal while at other times calls could not be placed beyond Belleville because of static interference on the line.

These pioneer phone talkers were equipped with Blake telephones which consisted of three boxes mounted one above the other on a board. The generator for ringing central or other subscribers on the line was in the top box from which the receiver hung. The mouthpiece was in the centre box and the battery or talking current in the lowest box. This set was gradually replaced by the long distance telephone which could effectively cover more distance.

On Feb. 1, 1910, the Bell Telephone Company took over the telephone exchanges of the North American Telegraph Company and began erecting additional long distance lines out of Stirling. The first was erected to Bancroft in the same year and in 1911 another was constructed to Belleville. In 1913 lines erected to Madoc and Campbellford improved the facilities already provided by the telegraph company. Now it was possible to telephone to any town or city within the radius of a 1,000 miles. By 1920 it was possible to talk across the continent.

Stirling's phones were converted to dial operation in June 1940 and dial equipment was installed into the new telephone building on Church Street. The town's 500th telephone was installed in 1941, the 1,000th in 1952.

New phone subscribers in Stirling are definitely into a new era with the introduction of Direct Distance Dialing. They will enable customers to dial their own station-to-station long distance calls to more than 90 million phones on this continent.

by Margaret Brookfield

Precocious Daughter

Dear Margaret Brookfield:
I'm in something of a dilemma. My 15 year old daughter is very attractive and all the neighborhood boys are starting to hang around our house. I've told her some facts of life, but worry about whether or not she'll be able to handle herself with all the interest that's being shown in her now. What can I do to prevent serious problems?

Dear L.O.,
Openness would seem to be the best policy in this situation. According to Dr. Nathaniel N. Wagner of the University of Washington in Seattle, as soon as youngsters attain puberty, parents should impress on them the need for sexual responsibility. Adolescents, he says, must become aware that while they're physiologically capable of producing a child, they lack the maturity, knowledge of life and emotional stability for constructive sexual experience. He believes parents should supply teenagers with sound information on sex and venereal disease. He states that providing this kind of information should be considered as "an affirmative and loving act, based on knowledge and respect for the individual and for his self-determination." So why not have a straight, heart-to-heart talk with your daughter soon. And better still, try to keep the lines of communication open between you so you will receive as well as transmit messages.

Probing the Pill

Dear Margaret Brookfield:
If a mature woman is taking birth control pills, does this mean she won't go into menopause because she's already taking estrogen in the pills? And does it also mean that if she stops taking the pills, the menopause will occur?

U.R.

Dear U.R.,
Physicians say the answer to both questions is "no." Estrogen does not prevent menopause. This is a natural stage in a woman's life which indicates that her child bearing years are over. It comes to all mature women whether they take birth control pills or not. Although estrogen is one of the hormones used in the "pills" to prevent pregnancy in the child bearing years, it is used in a different way, and in a different dosage, to alleviate certain symptoms of the menopause. Whether a woman needs estrogen during the menopause is best determined by her physician. If the questions you've raised concern you personally, why not discuss them with your own doctor?

Mrs. Jim Pollock was hostess for the November meeting of Wellman's WI, with an attendance of 21 ladies and three children.

Mrs. John Carlisle extended a welcome to all and opened the meeting with the Ode and Lord's Prayer.

The roll call was answered with a variety of "Impressions of the New School System."

A donation was made to the Christmas Seal Fund. The collection was gathered by Joanne Rainie.

Mrs. Gerald Russell paid to the Birthday Box. Current Events were reported by Mrs. Byron Seeley.

The motto "Education means developing the mind not stuffing the memory" was given by Mrs. W. Cox.

Mrs. Keith Clancy, convener for this Citizenship and Education meeting, opened the program with an article about John McCrear.

Canadian physician and poet, who wrote "In Flanders Fields."

Mrs. Douglas Clancy introduced the guest speaker, Miss Cora Bailey of Peterborough. She gave a very informative address about the changes in our School System and expressed her views about it from her own personal experience in working with children from four to eight years old.

She stated that our education is controlled entirely by the Ontario government. Education is growth and development. She answered many questions asked by concerned parents.

Mrs. Kenneth Tompkins expressed thanks to Miss Bailey and presented her with a gift.

The meeting closed with the Mary Stewart Collect and God Save the Queen.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses and their assistants, Mrs. Elmer Cotten, Mrs. Jim Rainie and Mrs. Carl Clancy.

TODAY'S CHILD

BY HELEN ALLEN

Toronto Telegram Syndicate

"He loves people"

Smiling his way into your heart is Donny, eight months old. He is a lovely baby, Anglo-Saxon in descent, a well-developed boy with blonde hair and almond-shaped blue eyes. His left eye is slightly smaller than the right, but this does not spoil his good looks, and, in any case, is gradually improving.

Donny is an energetic, inquisitive boy with a delightful personality. Everybody is his friend. He loves children and the rougher they are with him, the more he squeals and laughs with glee. He is a strong baby, who can already stand well. And he has a small vocabulary of understandable words.

Donny is an affectionate little fellow who loves to be cuddled. There is muscular dystrophy in his background, but extensive tests show he is a normal baby. This cherub needs warm, outgoing parents who will have lots of time to give him and who can be comfortable with his medical history. To inquire about adopting Donny, please write to Today's Child, Box 888, Station K, Toronto. For general adoption information, ask your Children's Aid Society.

River Valley UCW

The River Valley U.C.W. met at the home of Mrs. Philip Conley for their November meeting. The program was inspired by Remembrance Day.

Fred Heasman, a veteran of World War I, and a member of Stirling Legion, spoke on the realities of War, of the first Armistice, on Poppies and on Peace. He said all the money received from poppy sales is used to help needy veterans. He considered the Canadian Legion the greatest organization for peace that we have.

In the worship service a solo was given by Mrs. Bogart, "God Understands Your Sorrow." Hymns, prayers, readings and roll call responses were on the theme of peace.

The program was closed with the reading of Prayer of a Nazi Soldier.

In the stewardship talk by Mrs. Roy Bush, she quoted from St. Paul's letters to the Romans -

"Present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service." We must have fellowship with all, Even if sinners, we have obligations as Christians.

During the business period reports, business and social, were given.

Wednesday Night Ladies League

On Nov. 17 Connie Donohoe's Cuties took two games for 4 points from Joan Rankin's Korner Pins who took one game and total pinfall for 3 points.

Robert Wood's Upsets took 7 points from Darlene Fox's Hip Huggers.

Korner Pins (3) 40
Upsets (7) 30
Donohoe 209, Karen Dostator 236, Ivy Poste 215 and 242, Judy Bird Cuties (4) 33

Announcements and arrangements for future meetings were made. The regular December meeting will be held at the manse, and a special meeting at the Edward St. Manor on Dec. 21.

An enjoyable lunch was served.

Stirling Bantam, Junior Bowling

Saturday, Nov. 20 was Y.B.C., "I Beat My Average" day. On their regular league bowling games each bowler belonging to the Y.B.C. had to beat his or her average in the first game bowled and if they did, earned an attractive crest denoting "I Beat My Average." The bowlers to receive the crest are JoAnne Valchar, Ricky Clements and Terry McGee for the Juniors; Mary Reid, Suzanne Jacket, Chris Faires and Cheryl McGee for the Bantams.

The Partridge Family (28), the Go Getters (26) and the Great Ones (26) each defeated the Hot Shots (25), the Champions (13) and the Chargers (32) respectively 5 to 0.

Wilcox 90, 88; Anna Marie Little 85; Jeff Whiteman 79; Annie Bonin 76; Chris Faires 106, 103; Brian Clements 145, 129; Scott Whiteman 84; Mary Reid 102, 77; and Peter Jones 87, 80.

JUNIOR
JoAnne Valchar had games of 182, 166 (348) for high single, double and average of 152.

Ricky Clements had only 4 open frames in his 2 games and three of these were head pins and 5 frames were corner pins spared. His games were 293 and 229 (522) and his average is 185. Ricky earned the first "100 Pins Over Average" crest this season.

Terry McGee also had good games of 212 and 185.

Frankford-Stirling Trimettes meet

The regular meetings of Nov. 8 and Nov. 15 were held in the Library of the Stirling Public School.

Two new members were welcomed, Kay Robson and Evelyn Aids. JoAnne Crow was the "Princess of the Month" of October. Both JoAnne and Betty LaRue lost 5 lbs.

Mary Giddon was elected to the office of Vice President.

The menu for the Christmas party was discussed. Exercises and coffee were enjoyed.

By William J. Martin
Dear Mr. Martin:
I've been thinking about investing in the stock market on a small scale and it seems to me that mutual funds are a good buy. What's your opinion?
C.T.

Dear C.T.:
Mutual funds continue to be a very popular way for the average investor to get involved with the stock market. Today there are more than 6 million fund shareholders. I think it is an excellent way for a new investor like yourself to get started. When you buy a fund's shares, you know, you become a proportionate owner of its portfolio which can range from the stocks of only a few companies to hundreds.

Most funds offer a pretty diversified group of common stocks, although you can find many that specialize in a particular type of security.

Carmel UCW Unit

(by Mrs. Arthur Pyear)
The November meeting of Carmel U.C.W. Unit was held at the home of Mrs. Robert Hearn on Thursday afternoon, Nov. 11. Mrs. Carl Cooke and Mrs. Arthur Pyear were in charge of the meeting. Mrs. Cooke opened with welcome to the 13 members, one visitor and several children, then read the Scripture Lesson, Mrs. Schram gave the prayer and "O God our help in Ages Past" was sung. A Remembrance Day program had been prepared and Mrs. Cooke used as a topic, "The Meaning of Remembrance Day." Sentence readings on "Thoughts of Remembrance" were given by seven ladies, Mrs. Retta Grills read "The Day of

To find out what a certain fund's policies are, just ask a broker for a prospectus. It's free and must be given to any prospective buyer.

You may have heard the terms, "load" and "no load" funds. A "load" fund is one that charges a sales fee. For a small investor, it may be around 8 or 9 percent. The "no load" funds have no salesmen or sales fee, but sell their shares directly to the public. This means that you have to get in touch with them.

Some have minimum investment amounts which can range from just a few dollars to thousands of dollars.

There are hundreds of funds available, so take some time to shop around. Don't grab at the first one that's recommended to you. Decide what type of fund best fits your needs; such as income funds, growth funds, performance funds, or balanced funds.

Dieppe" and Mrs. Arthur Pyear gave a reading "The Brave Pig" and a Dog of the Battlefield." O Canada and The Lord's Prayer concluded the program. Mrs. Pyear conducted the business, in the absence of the secretary, Mrs. Ron White. Mrs. Gerald Fraser read the minutes and called the roll, answered by 15 hospital and 7 house calls. It was decided that members would bring articles for sale at the December meeting, the proceeds for the flower fund. Carmel Unit is to present the devotional at the General Meeting in December.

Mrs. Keith Grills, Mrs. Gerald Fraser and the hostess served lunch and Mrs. Retta Grills expressed appreciation.

There are mutual fund magazines and publications available either from a broker's office or the library. Review them and then decide which gets your money.

Stirling Teen League Bowling

On Friday, Nov. 19 the Strikers (15) took 5 points from the Hi-Los (25) and the Chargers (24) took 5 from the Gutters (16). Trevor Crossman bowled games of 253, 162 for boy's high single, high double of 415 and Paul Jones has the high average of 186.

Susan Wright bowled games of 209, 191 for girl's high single, high double 400 and high average of 223.

Other good games were Faith Little 142, 143; Robbie Corbett 191; Tim Whiteman 166; Danny Petherick 141; Debbie Montgomery 138, 173; Janet Munro 147; Shirley Goodman 171; Paul Jones 172, 183; Fred Smith 218; John Bissell 191; Lyn Merrill 174, 168; and Sue Wright 209, 191. We had "Beat My Average" on Friday night and Debbie Montgomery was the only one to beat hers.

IN MEMORIAM

TOWNS - In loving memory of our dear son, Donald Richard Towns, who passed away seven years ago, November 21st, 1964, in Stirling's hillside cemetery. Where the breezes softly blow Lies the son we loved so dearly. That we lost seven years ago, Swiftly and silently came the call. His sudden death shocked us all. The blow was hard, the shock severe To part with one we loved so dear. It broke our hearts when you had gone, But you did not go alone, For part of us went with you, Don. The day God called you home. Sadly missed and always remembered by Mom and Dad. 46-1

TOWNS - In loving memory of a dear Daddy, Donald Richard Towns who passed away seven years ago, November 21st, 1964. If we could have life's dearest wish And all earth's treasures too, And choose from Heaven what we could, Dear Daddy, we'd ask for you. Sadly missed and lovingly remembered by daughter Dawn and son Ricky. 46-1

Holiday eggnog rises to new heights as a Christmas Bavarian dessert. A velvety white chiffon. Christmas Eggnog Bavarian has a fruit cocktail topping accented with Curacao for a detectable look and flavor. This dessert is quick to prepare since you use bottled eggnog and whipped cream spiced with nutmeg. And the secret of holding the mixture high and firm is using unflavored gelatine which lets the natural holiday flavor of eggnog come through. An added holiday plus is that you can make this towering dessert in the morning and have it all set for dinner, with a minimum of work.

Christmas Eggnog Bavarian
2 envelopes Knox Unflavored Gelatine 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, optional
1/4 cup sugar 1 tablespoon brandy or rum flavoring, optional
1 can (29 ounces) fruit cocktail 1 cup heavy cream, whipped
3 cups commercially prepared eggnog 1 tablespoon Curacao
Mix together gelatine and sugar in saucepan. Drain 1 cup syrup from fruit cocktail; add to gelatine-sugar mixture. Place over medium heat, stirring constantly 3 to 4 minutes until gelatine is dissolved. Remove from heat; stir in eggnog. Add nutmeg and flavoring, if desired. Chill until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Fold in whipped cream. Turn into a 6-cup mold; chill until firm. Add Curacao to remaining fruit cocktail for sauce; chill. Unmold Bavarian and serve with fruit cocktail sauce. YIELD: 8 servings.

St. Paul's Faith Unit

Mrs. J. B. Hough greeted the 25 ladies who attended the November 16 meeting of the Faith
Unit of St. Paul's United Church Women.

Mrs. B. Stapley presided and opened with a few lines on "Receiving to Give." After singing
"Lord Thou Shalt Early Hear my Voice" all joined in The Lord's Prayer.

Various reports were received. Ten hospital calls and 24 shut-in visits were made. Announcements included helping on November 17; General U.C.W. pot-luck supper in December, with gifts of children's underwear suggested; and a Faith
Unit pot luck dinner, also in December.

A worship service was conducted by Mrs. A. Brooks and Mrs. C. Clancy on the subject of "Humility." Scripture passages and other quotations were read, with responses from ladies in the audience. "Only as we acknowledge humility may we achieve greatness," Hymns,
"Come We That Love the Lord,"

Dear Lord and Father of Mankind," and "Saviour, Again to Thy Dear Name," were sung, and Mrs. Brooks led in prayer.
The offering was dedicated by singing "We Give Thee But Thine Own."

Mrs. G. Hogle presented a program about certain women in the Bible: Hagar; Jezebel; Mary;
the mother of Mark; Rhoda; Salome; and Dorcas. These women showed how to serve and use their influence in effective ways lasting down through the years. A number of ladies, carrying letters, lined up spelling the word, "Friendship," and a quality with an initial in the word was described. Mrs. Hogle closed her program with prayer.

The meeting closed with the hymn, "O Lord, Our Help in Ages Past," and prayer led by Mrs. W. McMullen.

Tea was then enjoyed, and thanks was expressed by Miss B. Hollinger to the hostesses, and to those who took part in the meeting.

Rebekahs hold meeting

A delicious roast pork dinner with all the trimmings was served by the U.C.W. Ladies of Mount Pleasant to the members and guests of Laurel Rebekah Lodge #211 on the occasion of their 51st birthday, held in the Mount Pleasant was voiced by Sister Nora Wannamaker, PNG.

The Noble Grand, Sister Madeline Walker, welcomed 75 members also Sister Betty Campbell, Noble Grand of the Tweed Lodge.

Sister Campbell presented a birthday gift from her lodge and Sister Walker thanked her on behalf of Laurel Lodge. Sister Cora Bailey of Peterborough was also welcomed. Sister Ruth Jardine, District Deputy President of District #4, was escorted and introduced by Sister Kathleen McMullen, Jr., PNG. After a warm welcome was extended by the Noble Grand, Sister Madeline Walker, she was escorted to her chair through a Guard of Honor formed by Sisters Isobel Good, PNG; Ada Keating; Lillian Johnson, PNG; Verna Woodbeck, PNG; Eileen Woodcock, PNG and Irene Hogle, PNG.

The Vice Grand, Sister Marjorie Stapley, reported cards and visits had been sent and made to sick members. Brother Charles Carter, PNG, reported on the work of the C.P.&T. Committee.
Sister Marion Heath, PDDP, reported that the Masonic Banquet for the Grand Master W. K.
Bailey was very successful and thanked all who helped in any way. Sisters Cora and Evelyn Bailey each thanked the members on behalf of the Bailey family for the delicious banquet served by the members of Laurel Lodge in honor of their brother, Sister Ruth Jardine, D.D.P.

installed Sister Marguerite Sine as Inside Guardian. Sister Ruth thanked Laurel Lodge for the invitation extended to her to attend the birthday party and wished the lodge every success for the future.
